

The Dr Martin Clarke Young Organ Scholars Trust funded 24 Scholars in the accounting period 1 April 2022- 31 August 2023, and will continue to fund 24 in the accounting period 1 September 2023 – 30 August 2024.

David Saint took over from Ann Elise Smoot as Chair of Trustees in May 2023, and Roxanne Gull took over from Alexandra Rowlands as Director of YOST in September 2023.

In order to align our accounting year with the academic year that forms the pattern for our Scholars' tuition, we have changed our financial year end to 30th August, which has resulted in a one-off accounting year of abnormal length. Our future accounting year will run 1st September to 30th August.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Dr Martin Clarke Young Organ Scholars' Trust

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Dr Martin Clarke Young Organ Scholars' Trust (the Trust) for the period ended 31 August 2023.

Responsibilities and Basis of Report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act).

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and, in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent Examiners' Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act: or
2. The accounts do not accord with those accounts.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
