C&D Where The Music Takes You

Annual Return 2025

During this period, the charity focused on sustaining voluntary arts and music engagement for young people, helping participants develop creative skills and personal confidence.

Our model remains completely non-monetary, sustained through volunteer hours and donated materials. The trustees confirm all projects were provided free of charge for the public benefit, with total receipts and payments remaining at £0.