Objectives and activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	"To relieve the suffering and emotional distress amongst parents, families and friends when a baby, child, young person or adult dies by:- a) The provision of Cuddle Cot cooling systems and moses baskets and memory boxes to maternity units and similar equipment designed for older children in hospices across the UK; b) The provision of advice, support and information to those bereaved and their carers; c) Working collaboratively with health and social care professionals to improve and enhance professional practice with bereaved families; d) Making donations to other charitable organisations having similar objects as the charity that the trustees shall in their discretion deem suitable; e) The advancement of bereavement care through education, training, grant making and research; f) Raising awareness through public events and supporting research into stillbirth, miscarriage, neonatal death, maternity care and the improvements needed in perinatal maternal health; and g) Producing appropriate written and electronic materials in respect of the above."
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We continue to work in partnership with the local hospitals to determine the wish list of items and needs for the respective bereavement suites and identifying where identified in the accounts.		there is a need for the equipment and resources. We have been able to signpost families affected by bereavement to receive the appropriate support and help and have included links within our website so families can access the right level of support when they need it. We have developed the relationships with health care professionals and midwives, identifying the training and support requirements and working in partnership with other local charity called Children and Families in Grief. We have delivered a number of Sessions in schools to support bereavement awareness and worked with Bereavement UK to deliver session to social workers

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	At all times the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit, this has been incorporated into all of our planning for the years activities and has informed the work that we have done throughout the year. We have regularly reviewed this guidance during our trustee meetings.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Emotional Support Programs: We have delivered a range of emotional support programs in schools with support from Groundworks UK. We delivered to over 200 young people sessions on loss. Awareness and Advocacy: Through various campaigns and collaborations with healthcare providers, we've raised significant awareness about baby loss. Our efforts have contributed to more sensitive handling of such cases in hospitals and the development of bereavement training for healthcare professionals, we have also developed training sessions for social workers. We have rebranded and have developed new information leaflets and a new website that reflects our commitment to working in the community. We negotiated training with Adapt which was delivered on trauma informed care to a range of healthcare professionals. We continue to provide memory boxes, resources to bereavement suites across Devon. Impact on Beneficiaries Emotional Healing: Beneficiaries report significant improvements in their emotional wellbeing due to our support programs. Increased Awareness: Families have benefited from the greater understanding and sensitivity they receive from society and medical professionals. Wider Benefits to Society Improved Healthcare Practices: Our advocacy have led to more compassionate and informed practices in healthcare settings regarding baby loss. Societal Awareness: By raising awareness, we've helped reduce the stigma associated with talking about baby loss, leading to a more empathetic society. Policy Influence: Our advocacy have
