Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

Charity Law requires the Board to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the situation of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Board is required to:

The trustees are also responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the Charities Act. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees' Report

The report of the trustees for the year ended 15th August 2024. Financial Review and Future Plans.

At the end of this financial year, the charity has balance of £73,295 at bank. The trustees are not expecting any financial hardship in the coming year, but still sufficient cashflow which can cover 6 or more months costs. In this reporting period, we secured a total income of £41,103 mainly from donations, Friday collections, members contribution and gift aid. The most notable source of income for this financial year was the revenue from donations. The charity has secured yearly rent basis permanent place from council and ready to move soon.

Accountant Reports: YE 15/08/2024

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 15th August 2023.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustee and Examiner:

As the charities trustees you are responsible for the preparation of accounts. You consider the audit requirement of S144 (2) of the charities act 2011 does not apply, and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under s145 of the 2011 Act to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission under S145(5)(b) of the 2011 act and to state whether matters have come to my attention. Basis of

Independent Examiners Report:

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking of explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiners qualified statement:

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

To keep accounts records in accordance with the CC S130 of the 2011 Act.

To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 -Act.
