- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	To further such purposes as may be charitable according to the law of England and Wales as the trustees see fit from time to time

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity made several grants during the year aimed at the advancement of education, the relief of poverty and animal conservation. The Trustees considered all grants in the context of the charity's Grant-Making Policy, which, in particular, gives priority to assisting with initiatives that allow young people to realise their potential.

During the year the trustees continued to follow up on the progress made with various funds that had been established some years ago.

The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. The applications considered by the charity and the grants made in the year involved the public generally and were for the public benefit as a whole.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity raised funds during the year by way of donations sufficient to meet its expected grant obligations for the next few years. The charity made grants towards assisting with the advancement of education, the relief of poverty and animal conservation.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The charity aims to retain sufficient liquid funds to keep its bank account open and to allow small grants to be made without delay. The Trustees regard an amount of £2,000 in the charity's bank account as meeting this aim.

CHARITY COMMISSION FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees

Charity Name: The Chaffield Shaw Trust

On accounts for the year ended: 31 March 2025

Charity no (if any): 1164710

Set out on pages: (remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
