Summary of main activities in relation to these objects

We work intensively providing assessments, one/one and mentoring support, for hard to reach, underachieving, and disengaged, disabled and disenfranchised young people. We also offer support for those young people who are the higher end of achievement but may experience life barriers helping them find pathways to success in choice of progression and current opportunities.

We work closely and in partnership with Schools, Social services, Young Peoples services, Commissioning, Youth Offending Services, Families, Local, National, Voluntary agencies, third sector and private organisations across London to provide effective support solutions for young people and individuals.

Financial review

Policy on reserves

Due to the charity being a small organisation and its future expenses being fairly predictable in nature the trustees have decided that a minimum reserve of £nil will be sufficient at any one time.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS

To the Trustees of

Next Generation Ministries

(A Charitable Incorporated Organisation)

Year End 4th April 2025

Charity number 1164750

CIO Number CE005816

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this Period (under section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 43 of the 1993 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the trustees have not met the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
