

The trustees of the London Muslim Women Welfare Organisation annual report for 2020 - 2021

The charity was formed in December 2015. Over the trading period ending 31st March 2021 it did not trade in that it never applied for funding from many Trusts and organisations and it did not provide any services.

So unfortunately we did not raise any funds to fulfil all its objectives and bring greater local impact, due to the Covid pandemic

A major contributing factor still is that the charity has no permanent or semi permanent base from which to operate from and that many demands made for funds from other charities.

The charity is still actively looking for a semi permanent base from which to operate from.

Signed trustees,

Asha Farhan.
