Playgrounds for Palestine UK Trustee report for 2024

Trustees' Annual Report - Financial Year 1 January - 31 December 2024

1 Context

Throughout 2024 the humanitarian situation in Palestine deteriorated sharply. The war in Gaza and heightened movement restrictions in the West Bank curtailed everyday life and placed unprecedented demands on organisations working with children. These conditions framed both our fundraising environment and our programme delivery.

2 Income

Source	Amount (£)	Notes
Public donations & events	9,316	Two flagship events: a benefit rock concert in Bristol and a Palestinian dinner near London
Gift Aid (received Jan 2025)	≈ 2,000	Will be recognised in the 2025 accounts

*Total income recognised in 2024 accounts: £9,316

Income was slightly lower than in 2023 as many long-standing supporters redirected donations to emergency food and shelter appeals.

3 Expenditure & Programme Activity

Category	Amount (£)	Highlights
Programme delivery	19,005	Partnership with Child Smile (Gaza): two cycles of drama-therapy workshops reaching several hundred war-affected children. Independent video and photographic monitoring confirmed positive psychosocial outcomes.

Total expenditure: £19,005 – an increase of c£4,500 from 2023, reflecting additional emergency programme costs.

The trustees record their sincere gratitude to all volunteers, partners and donors, and to Rachel Rice, who independently examined the 2024 accounts.

5 Looking Ahead (2025)

- Expand working with other partners, such as Culture and Free Thought Association (CFTA) in Gaza, and consolidate and expand drama-therapy provision with Child Smile, subject to security conditions and funding, helping to ensure we reach as many children as possible.
 - Expand awareness of our charity through increased social media presence and visibility through articles and conferences, as appropriate. Consider the use of a paid fundraiser.
 - Continue to seek others who can support the work of our charity.
 - Review and strengthen policies and procedures, as appropriate, including the working relationship with PfP in America.

Approved by the Board of Trustees on 30/6 /2025 and signed on its behalf by Roslyn Arthur, Chair.

Playgrounds for Palestine UK

Trustee report for 2023

Almost £10,500 was raised during the year, less than the previous year which is unsurprising given the difficult situation within Palestine, especially the war in the later part of the year. We suggested that people may prefer to donate to other charities at this time, ones who can impact immediately on delivering food and shelter to those in Gaza, hence the number of people supporting our work through monthly donations fell considerably during the year.

We have not yet heard about the status of playgrounds built within Palestine, but anticipate all playgrounds in Gaza have been destroyed.

Immediately before the war we sent almost £15,000 to the West Bank for a playground in Burin. We are pleased that the playground has been received safely and constructed though we are yet to have photographic evidence since the situation is still unsafe for people, particularly women, to move freely. Once evidence is received, we will send more money for further smaller play equipment for the site.

During the year, trustees Roslyn Arthur, Evie Dickinson, Julian Lewis, Lesley Ravenscroft and Sadia Akram were supported by Nora Allen who worked closely with those in Burin to ensure effective communication. We are grateful to her, and also Rachel Rice who examined our accounts.

Playgrounds for Palestine UK

Trustee report for 2022

Almost £12,500 was raised during the year, less than the previous year in which we received a very generous donation. However, we benefited from a very generous pledge from a supporter, who match-funded donations during our Christmas Big Give appeal which raised over £4000. The number of people supporting our work through monthly donations grew during the year and we are grateful for their support. Thanks too to Rachel Rice who examined our accounts.

The situation in Palestine is such that it is increasingly difficult to find playground manufacturers who can match the high quality required. Nonetheless we sent over £13,000 to the West Bank for a playground in Silwan. Plans for a further playground in the West Bank are well advanced and will be built in 2023.

During the year, trustees Roslyn Arthur, Evie Dickinson, Julian Lewis and Lesley Ravenscroft were joined by Sadia Akram to ensure the continuing success of the charity. We said goodbye to Sarah Parkhouse, Henry Bowlby and Sophie Dowle and we thank them for their hard work. We continue to work closely with our American counterparts, Susie and Hanan.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Playgrounds for Palestine UK Charitable Trust

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2020 which have been provided to me by the Trustees.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that:

- an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act); and
- an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Playgrounds for Palestine UK

Trustee report for 2020

Despite the pandemic, which meant that no fundraising events could take place, almost £30,000 was raised in 2020, a considerable increase on the previous year. We benefited from a very generous donation from a supporter, who also match funded donations during our Christmas appeal. Two churches, St Oswald's and All Saints supported our work, and we are very grateful to them and to all our supporters. Thanks too to Claire Trow-Smith who has examined our accounts.

During the year, monies were sent to fund specialist playground equipment at the Al-Shurooq school for the blind in Bethlehem and also for an outside gym for older students at the Talitha Kumi School near Bethlehem – this will also be used by local children. We have now funded seven playgrounds funded by Playgrounds for Palestine UK to seven – three in the West Bank, two in Gaza, and two in Lebanon. Information about all these projects, and photographs, can be seen on our website www.playgroundsforPalestineUK.org

During the year, our long-standing trustees Reverend Tony Lynn and Frank Paul, stood down: both are missed. However, we were joined by Evie Dickinson, Sarah Parkhouse, Julian Lewis and Henry Bowlby, all of whom bring a wealth of expertise that is hugely beneficial. Increasingly, during the year, we have worked closely with our American counterparts, Susie and Hanan, as we seek ways of building playgrounds that are ecologically friendly.

In 2020 we started two major projects: one working with PfPUSA and the University of Gaza to design and build an eco-friendly playground for the municipality of Bani Suhaila, in Gaza, the second working to create a forest playground in Jenin in the West Bank. We hope to complete the first of these playgrounds in 2021, though the Jenin project, which is ambitious, may take longer.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Playgrounds for Palestine UK Charitable Trust

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2020 which have been provided to me by the Trustees.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that:

- an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act); and
- an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
