Section F Other optional information

Since this time the preschool provision aspect of this charity has been taken on by the local primary school who we have supported in their efforts to set up a new nursery class of for children of 3 years of age in preparation for their start in reception upon turning 4. This has meant that the facility at Whitsbury Village Hall has now adopted a parent and toddler, stay and play role and as such the trustees are in the process of voluntarily winding up the charity and thus preventing any losses from occurring and ensuring that the charities assets are used to benefit the children and families of the area as set out in the constitution.
