Statement of the Trustees' Responsibilities

In preparing the accounts, the trustees are required to

- >select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- >observe the methods and principles set out in the Statement of Recommended Practice (Accounting and Reporting by Charities)-(the Charities SORP);
- >make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the CIO and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Activities

Evnu is a stand-alone Christian Youth and Children's charity registered in England and Wales number 1165239 and during the year had ceased programmes and conferences.

The purpose and business of Evnu was to proclaim the Christian Gospel in contextual and relative ways which are appropriate, timely and meaningful to children, youth and young adults. Our tag line was 'Enabling Kids to Shine' as Christians believe we are all children of God. Our work was needs based and we rarely charged for what we do and all our team were unpaid at this time. We rely on donations and occasional grant support to do our work.

Evnu worked in six Primary Schools managing the national programme called Open The Book and assisting the same schools develop collective worship teams. Evnu also held two separate After School Clubs for primary aged children and one Christian youth session each Thursday. We also provide minibus transport and attend camps, concerts and festivals as well as regular Holiday Clubs. Our Friday evening open Café Respect was non proselytizing and attracted up to 100 teens aged 13-20 each week. This was a project run to reduce anti social behaviour and had the support of the Parish Council, Neighbourhood Support, Police and local church.

We also worked closely with, and were supported by, the Church of England in the dioceses of Ipswich and St Edmundsbury, from whom we get training and information particularly focused on safe practice as well as spiritual matters.

Achievements, performance and financial review

In the year under review, the income from all sources was £nil. During the year, the CIO incurred costs of £306.

Financial position

The balance sheet as at 31st October 2021 shows nil total funds following the closure of all activities.

Going concern

The trustees consider that the CIO has adequate financial resources and is well placed to manage its business risks. The planning process of the CIO, including financial projections, has taken into consideration the economic and financial environment in which the CIO operates and its impact and planned expenditure of the CIO.

The trustees believe that there are no material uncertainties that call into doubt the CIO's ability to continue. The accounts have therefore been prepared on the basis is a going concern.

Future plans

The CIO has ceased all activities and donated the net assets to like-minded societies.

Related Parties

No trustees receive any remuneration or other benefit from their work with the CIO.

Approved by the trustees on 26 August 2022 and signed on their behalf by M. Knapp.

EVNU CIO

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of the EVNU CIO

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 October 2021 which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for the year under section 144(1) of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act') and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to

- a) examine the financial statements under section 145 of the 2011 Act,
- b) to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) of the 2011 Act, and
- c) to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the financial statements present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement following.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- a) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - 1) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act ; and
 - 2) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met, or
- b) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.
