Final report

Sadly, because the charity doesn't have sufficient funds to pay anyone and was unsuccessful in its attempts to secure volunteers, the difficult decision has been made to shut it down.

Potential donors are no longer able to make donations as the charity's bank account has been closed and all funds are in the process of being transferred to the Zambezi Society (www.zamsoc.org), a wildlife and wilderness conservation organisation in Zimbabwe.

In due course, Poaching Prevention's website and social media platforms will be updated with information about the charity's closure and transfer of its funds. Thanks will be expressed to everyone who kindly donated to the charity and assurance will be given that 100% of the donations made will be used for the protection of wildlife, i.e., that the funds transferred from Poaching Prevention to ZamSoc will be used to help protect the wildlife of Mana Pools National Park by covering costs of deployment vehicles (fuel, maintenance and driver salary) that deploy and uplift ranger units on antipoaching patrols in remote, threat hotspots.

Annual Report

Unfortunately, due to work and bereavements, Jax hasn't had any spare time to focus on the charity.

Jax tried to find other volunteers to share the workload with her, but without success. Therefore, it is with regret and no small degree of embarrassment that she has decided to close the charity and transfer all its funds to the Zambezi Society's anti-poaching program.

After funds are transferred and the charity has dissolved transferred, the charity's bank statements will be available, upon request, to its wider network and anyone who made a donation.

Annual Report for 2022

As the charity operates on an entirely voluntary basis with most the work and all costs being covered by Jax, the founding director, forward momentum and fundraising have been slow.

Due to her full-time work commitment, caring responsibility, house moves and relocation to West Yorkshire, Jax has struggled to find time for the charity this year.

As Jax is unable to devote the same degree of time and attention to the charity as she use to, it was agreed by all that the charity needs to find reliable volunteers that are willing to share the workload.

Jax proposed that if the charity hasn't secured any effective volunteers by mid December 2024, that it be dissolved and the funds distributed to one or more African conservation organisations with counter-poaching efforts. The trustees agreed to this proposal.

Annual Report for 2021

Due to caring responsibilities for a terminally ill family member, Jax was unable to give the charity her usual attention.

Emails and social media were attended to by Katie, and small donations were collected through charity pots and AmazonSmile.

Regrettably, the anticipated promotional opportunities did not arise and no new funding streams were identified.

Annual Report for 2020

The intention was to generate income through fundraising events and corporate sponsorship, with a focus on the agreed Kafue National Park project; however, the pandemic and ensuing lockdowns blocked all our fundraising streams and severely impacted our ability to generate income and deliver objectives.

Our Founding Director personally covered all the charity's running costs again.

Unfortunately, our contacts in the Zambian government have been preoccupied with the pandemic; therefore, the Memorandum of Understanding between us has been shelved.

Shaun Deeney was appointed as a Trustee.

MOVING FORWARD

Our new trustee, Shaun Deeney, has kindly offered to promote the charity during newspaper, radio, and TV interviews following the publication of his book. We hope to capitalize on this free publicity, raise our profile and increase our funding streams.

In the event the MOU between ourselves and the Zambian government is not ratified, we plan to liaise with our contacts in Southern Africa and build upon the strategies Jax Metcalfe devised while there.
