Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	We facilitate workshops suitable for families to receive the necessary material for their physical, spiritual and mental well being, suitable for men, women, youth and young children. Hold conferences, retreats, and seminars that encourage and empower the spiritual mind, boasting the faith and hope for the future. We give donations, to the poor and plan to build an orphanage in the near future.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	In carrying out its charitable purposes, Kingdom Influence Organisation has had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. Our activities are designed to serve vulnerable individuals and families, relieve hardship, and promote community wellbeing through both immediate support and long-term empowerment projects.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	In carrying out its charitable purposes, Kingdom Influence Organisation has had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit. 	SORP reference
Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	Kingdom Influence Organisation is not currently a grantmaking body, our policy is to ensure that all funds received are applied directly to charitable activities that deliver measurable community benefit. Our programme-related investments, such as the Hot Meals Kitchen, are carefully designed to

		maximise impact, ensure sustainability where possible, and demonstrate accountability to our supporters and funders.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	Over the course of the year, we have been actively affiliated with a range of community initiatives designed to support vulnerable individuals and promote long-term wellbeing. In particular, we have engaged in volunteering and outreach programmes alongside other faith-based organisations, contributing in various capacities across different areas of need. These have included health-related projects, educational support initiatives, and human rights causes, where our trustees, members, and volunteers have worked collaboratively to serve diverse groups within the community. Through these partnerships, Kingdom Influence Organisation has extended its reach and impact beyond its own projects, ensuring that our resources, time, and expertise contribute meaningfully to broader community development efforts. At the same time, we have continued to explore new opportunities to deliver projects that directly improve lives, staying focused on our mission of empowering individuals, supporting families, and strengthening communities. These activities reflect both our adaptability and our commitment to partnership working, ensuring that our charity remains relevant and responsive to the evolving needs of the public benefit.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	Volunteers form the backbone of our organisation. They contributed hundreds of hours over the past year, including cooking, serving meals, coordinating supplies, and providing pastoral support to families. Their commitment has significantly reduced operational costs and increased the scope of our charitable impact.
