- providing educational support for women and men
- providing support to breast cancer treatment centres and organisations for equipment and staffing
- providing other support including assistance for the families and cares of such persons in order to improve treatment and care of breast cancer nationally and internationally.

The main activities undertaken in relation to those purposes during the period

Despite of travel restrictions and lack of availability of resources, our charity has still managed to continue with it's efforts in Pakistan. The main activities include projects in Pakistan in the following areas:

1. Breast cancer treatment including Biopsy, Mammograms and Chemotherapy
2. Breast cancer awareness camps in Pakistan
4. Donated breast cancer screening equipment including CT-scan and Ultrasound machines.

The main activities undertaken during the year to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit

The main activities include:

1) Education and Awareness

We funded awareness campaigns with the aim was to create mass awareness amongst female population especially in the rural areas of Pakistan..

2) Diagnosis and Treatment

In order to achieve its mission to save lives and end breast cancer in women and men worldwide, the trust funded medical institutions in deprived areas for the early detection of breast cancer and treatment of those already diagnosed with the disease.

3) Rehabilitation of breast cancer patients/Post-Treatment Recovery Care

The trust aimed to provide information, support and professional guidance on how to cope with and adjust to life after treatment.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES

Breast Cancer Support

The main achievements and performance of the charity during the Period

Our core work in the domain of breast cancer is awareness, diagnosis and treatment with the goal being to assist sufferers and their families. The achievements and performances in these areas can be summarised as per below:

1) Education and Awareness

A breast cancer awareness camp was conducted at a public place in Islamabad. The event had knowledge imparting sessions where professional speakers and doctors shone light on the area of discussion. The effort was to communicate a unanimous message of hope and proactive health and to honor and remember the victims of this disease. At the same time it aimed to reduce the stigma associated with this disease. In a third world country like Pakistan, it is very important to bring forth such activities so that women who are hid behind the barriers of culture and illiteracy can step forward and learn about themselves.

Free awareness seminar at a local university was organised to impart knowledge amongst the young generation.

Various doctors were invited to the seminar to impart technical knowledge to the students of the university. The event targeted to raise awareness of the disease and to encourage early detection culture .

2) Diagnosis and Treatment

Our charity donated a CT-scan and an Ultrasound machine as per of a free breast cancer screening programme in Pakistan. These equipment will aid in supporting mammography and overall screening process. The rationale behind screening for breast cancer is the universally accepted dictum that (all other factors being equal) early diagnosis results in increased survival. The smaller the cancer at time of diagnosis, the better the 5 year survival of breast cancer. Screening for breast cancer is cost and risk effective, feasible and evidence based.

We continued to fund free chemotherapy treatment for patients suffering from breast cancer. The financial burden of breast cancer care is substantial and can be overwhelming for any individual. For most, it is implicit that the treatment is beyond their means. Therefore, the trust has made its contributions for free medical facilitation at institutional and community levels.

The difference the charity's performance during the period has made to the beneficiaries of the charity.

Our educational and awareness campaigns continued to create mass awareness amongst male and female population especially in the rural areas of Pakistan. We have managed to spread the culture of early detection. Our efforts are aimed to give courage to women who are hid behind the barriers of culture and illiteracy. We have provided a platform to the women of a developing country to step forward and learn about themselves.

Our free medical treatments for early detection of breast cancer and treatment of those already diagnosed with the disease has benefited a significant portion of female populace of the rural Punjab in Pakistan. We have helped improve the life of those diagnosed with Breast cancer.

Our post treatment recovery care helped reduce the effects of the conventional cancer treatment to improve quality of life, give a greater sense of control, and reduce stress amongst breast cancer patients.

The degree to which the achievements and performance during the period have benefited wider society.

Our charity continued to play a significant role in the society, typically by picking up the government's deficits in services and medical facilitations for the deprived of the society. Our efforts have improved the survival rates amongst breast cancer patients by early detection.

But the benefits to patients and their families are not the only benefits of our efforts. We strongly believe that the population that lives longer and healthier lives has the knock on effect of creating a more productive workforce that contributes to economic growth. So by helping the patients get better and the population to be healthier, our efforts have a positive impact on the society as a whole.

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
