Structure, governance and management

The charity is operated under the rules of its constitution adopted 4th February 2016.

Overall management of the charity is the responsibility of the trustees who are elected and under the terms of the constitution. Day to day activity is managed and carried out by volunteers.

The Trustees were responsible for the management of Enough during the period 1st February 2020 to 31st January 2021.

Enough

Trustees' annual report

All methods of appointment of Enough Management Committee members are set out in the Constitution. In line with the Constitution our volunteers have a representative on the Committee to ensure that their views are fully taken into account when decisions are taken regarding Enough.

The Management Committee members are responsible for making decisions on all matters of general concern and importance to the charity including deciding on how the funds are spent. They are also responsible for all matters related to the employment of staff, ensuring their contracts, payroll and all regulations including PAYE and NI are adhered to.

Aims and objectives

For the public benefit the relief of those in need and distress who have suffered abuse or domestic violence in particular but not exclusively by:

- Promoting, educating and informing the public that abuse or domestic violence should not be tolerated by anyone in society;
- Providing temporary refuge for victims who have left their homes due to abuse or domestic violence and ensuring the security of that safe place or refuge;
- Provide counselling and practical support for the victims of abuse or domestic violence in particular those staying in the refuge;
 - Providing after care support when they leave the refuge;
- Providing advice and information to any person suffering from abuse or domestic violence;
- Maintaining a strict confidential service and by supporting victims of abuse or domestic violence in whatever decision they make regarding their future all by such charitable means as the trustee see fit from time to time.

Activities

Registered as a CIO on 4th February 2016 and in furtherance to the above objects but not further or otherwise, the organisation may:

- Maintain a 24 hour telephone service.
- Provide individual and group support services.
- Disseminate information in all matters related to the above objects.

- Write, publish and distribute material related to the above objects.
 - Raise funds from any person or organisation provided that the organisation shall undertake no permanent trading activities in raising funds for the object of the organisation.
 - Employ and pay any persons not being members of the Management Committee.
 - Do all such other lawful things as shall further the above objects.

Volunteers

This year the team has stayed the same since the last report. We are looking for more volunteers in order to meet demand for services. We have 2 volunteers in total .

The committee would like to thank all the volunteers, without whom we could not provide this valuable service.

Main activities

When planning our services for the year, the Trustees have considered the Commission's guidance on public benefit.

There is a 24 hour telephone service and all calls are responded to swiftly by staff.

The charity's policy on reserves

The management Committee of Enough believes that the charity should hold financial reserves (if possible) as an emergency operating reserve because:

- (a) It has no endowment funding and is entirely depending for its operating costs on grant funding which is currently applied for from year to year and which is inevitable subject to fluctuation and donations; and
- (b) It requires protection against and the ability to continue operating despite fluctuations in funding or shortfalls that may occur as a result of gaps in funding grants.

The Management Committee of Enough believes that the minimum level of reserves should be the equivalent of three months' operating costs calculated and reviewed annually and believe that the reserve should be built up to the desired level in stages consistent with the charity's overall financial position and its need to maintain and develop its charitable activities.
