THE MILITARY EDUCATION TRUST

England & Wales - Charity number 1165473

Accounts

Military Education Trust – Charity number 1165473

Report : For the period April 2024 to March 2025

Four trustee meetings were held as planned including the AGM in February. Due to the failing health of the founding trustees these were held via Video and conference calls.

The Charity has an increasing core membership consisting of owners and operators of Military vehicles, these vehicles have attended exhibitions and events as detailed :

May – Popham Classic Car Classic Show - Aero, Auto for Jumble one day

May – Overload Show for three days

June – Fawley Show – Gangwarily

June - Lepe Beach Family Day.

July – Peartree Church Family day

July – Netley Marsh Steam and Craft Show for two days

July - Fawley show for the day

September- Bursledon Brickworks Heritage Open Day for the day

These attendances and exhibitions together with demonstrations at educational and Military venues were carried out at members' own expenses and running costs. This allows the trust to operate with minimal funding and has maintained the members' interest in the operation of the trust. The Trust holds Public Liability Insurance. Our face book site regularly has maintained a following of over 1000 "likes" per month. Bucket collections were made No donations were made by the Trust in this period.

Lloyds Bank remains appointed bankers.

July – Netley Marsh Steam and Craft Show for two days

July - Fawley show for the day

August - Twyford Waterworks open day.

August - The Rifles Museum in Winchester for the day.

September- Bursledon Brickworks Heritage Open Day for the day

October - day at Hamble Nursing Home invited by WWII Veteran's Family

These attendances and exhibitions together with demonstrations at educational and Military venues were carried out at members' own expences and running costs. This allows the trust to operate with minimal funding and has maintained the members' interest in the operation of the trust. The Trust holds Public Liability Insurance. Our face book site regularly has maintained a following of 750 "likes" per month Bucket collections were made No donations were made by the Trust in this period.

It was decided during the period that the Charity should change our Banking provider due to Barclays Bank not allowing the Trustees to resign signatories and elect new signatories from the appointed trustees. The Barclays account was closed and Lloyds Bank was appointed alternative bankers.
