Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

Providing, or assisting in the provision of, education, training, healthcare projects and basic support for disadvantaged/disabled children and young adults and/or those in rural areas in Bhutan. Its classifications as shown on the Charity Commission website are listed as:

Overseas aid/famine relief

Helping children, young people and people with disabilities

It provides buildings/facilities/open space

It provides services and other finance

The objectives of the charity have been to continue and deepen the charity's ability to help children in Bhutan either from disadvantaged rural areas or with specific mental or physical disabilities. The primary way to achieve these objectives is through achievable, tangible educational and medicinal initiatives, working in collaboration with existing Bhutanese structures. Working with such partner organisations enables Opening your Heart to Bhutan to ensure its projects or donated assets reach larger groups of children most effectively. The Opening your Heart to Bhutan activities this year will have improved life opportunities for over 300 disabled and/or disadvantaged children and a further 250 children in poor rural schools. Many of these children have benefitted from the installation of clean water filters in their schools, some of which have been funded in collaboration with the Openwork Foundation. We have continued to support the training of young blind musicians at the Blind Musicians training centre in Thimpu, supporting the rent for their building and access to training. We have provided educational materials for the two Vocational Training schools we support in Bhutan The CEO and all Trustees are acquainted with the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit and the advice contained within consistently informs their decisions when undertaking new activities.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

The contribution made by volunteers in the UK is of vital importance. Besides the CEO and Trustees, all of whom give their time and energy freely, there is a pool of supporters who are called upon to provide a wide range of functions necessary to the ongoing life of the charity including IT support, marketing materials, fundraising initiatives and individual sponsored events.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

1. Use of grant from the Openwork foundation to put five clean water filter systems in special needs and rural schools in Bhutan
2. Re-routing and improving the access to the vocational training centre in Tashigang.
3. Continual support for the rent for the Blind Musicians' Training School in Thimpu for the year 2020/21
4. Support for a part-time music teacher at the Blind Musicians' Training school in Thimpu
5. Supply of over £7,000 worth of educational equipment and materials for special needs schools
6. Maintenance and rust-prevention coating for rooves in the Eastern Training school

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

A formal reserves policy had not been deemed necessary in the past as our monthly commitments are only 16% of the annual income - however, this will be reviewed on an annual basis.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funding remains private donations, with an increased level of support from businesses.

In order maintain contact with the organisations we support and to deliver donations and material goods in the most efficient way, the charity pays for the services of Ugyen Tshering, a Bhutanese citizen. Ugyen works on a self-employed basis, is fluent in English and has a background in the voluntary sector.

Section F

Other optional information

In line with the charity's ethos to ensure that donated funds are used most effectively and have a direct impact on the lives of the disabled and disadvantaged children, the Chief Executive Officer and all Trustees pay their own travel expenses from their own funds as a 'benefit in kind'.

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
