Report of the Trustees
for the Year Ended 28 February 2022

---

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 28 February 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charity's object and its principal activity continue to be that of providing grants for the enhancement of education and religion in the orthodox jewish community. Its policy continues to be the making of such grants.

Significant activities

There were no significant activities to report.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm their compliance with the duty to have regard to the Public Benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives in planning future activities.

Grantmaking

Isaac and Chaya Limited has within its Articles of Association the ability to make donations.

Volunteers

During the year, the charity did not have any volunteers to help with the objective of the charity.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The trustees consider that the performance of the charity this year has been satisfactory.

The Statement of Financial Activities shows a net deficits of £1,143 (2021: £6,208) after making total grants of £64,705 (2021: £30,705) and the reserves stand at £1,672 (2021: £2,815)

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Principal funding sources

Isaac and Chaya Limited is pleased and fortunate to receive donations from it's related company PWorld.UK Limited.

Reserves policy

The charity does not maintain a reserve policy,as reserves are distributed when they become available at the trustees' discretion. The present level of funding is adequate to support the continuation of its objects and the trustees consider the financial position of the charity to be satisfactory

FUTURE PLANS

There are no significant future developments to report.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, the memorandum and articles of association, and constitutes a limited company, limited by guarantee, as defined by the Companies Act 2006.

The company was formed on 04 February 2015. The charity is managed and controlled by the directors who are the trustees, who meet regularly.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The trustees are appointed according to the Articles of Association.

Organisational structure

The Chief Executive of the charity is Rabbi J A Brunner, to whom day to day management of the charity has been delegated.

The Board of Trustees, as per the governing document, can have at up to 2 trustees serving at anyone time to administer the charity.

The entire board meets on a regular basis, at least quarterly, or more if required.

The charity is organised so that the trustees meet regularly to manage its affairs. There are no paid employees and all administration work is done on voluntary basis by the trustees.

Induction and training of new trustees

All new trustees are given, in the view of the board, sufficient training and have enough knowledge of their specific field to understand the nature of the charity and fully comply with the charities views of its progression.

New trustees undergo a briefing to ensure they are aware of both their legal and professional responsibilities under charity and company law.

Wider network

At present Isaac and Chaya Limited does not consider itself part of a wider network.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error. The trustees have also examined other operational and business risks faced by the charity and confirm that they have established systems to mitigate the significant risks.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end date are noted as a commitment but not accrued as expenditure.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.
