| Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by) | Trustees are appointed or reappointed every two years at the Annual General Meeting. |

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

All trustees give their time voluntarily and received no remuneration or other benefits.

Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To advance the Christian religion by spreading the gospel in areas of the developing world, through training, literacy, primary health care and self-help training.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

In planning our activities for the year, we adhered to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit during our trustee meetings. The focus of our activities remains actively promoting the Gospel through partnerships, providing training seminars and consultancy in developing countries primarily in India.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Our partnerships in India are a significant contribution. We are grateful for the many hours volunteers have spent organising training and seminars for the underprivileged. Their time, energy and expertise have been invaluable in achieving our objectives.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

In partnership with a local church, we successfully drilled six bore-wells in four villages in Andhra Pradesh as part of our Clean Water Project. This provided clean water to villagers who previously lacked access.

In partnership with a local church in Hyderabad, SILAI (Tailoring Training for women), we were able to see twenty ladies complete their year-long sewing training and graduate. They were also gifted a sewing machine to generate income. We have since launched the seventh batch of trainees and currently have seventeen women undergoing the year-long training.

In partnership with a local church in Hyderabad, we organised and executed a medical camp in the villages of Andhra Pradesh and initiated a community project for people with leprosy.

In partnership with Youth With A Mission, Switzerland, we provided training.

In partnership with Youth With A Mission, Switzerland and through their donation, we funded the construction of a classroom for Little Pearls School in Manipur.

In partnership with Youth With A Mission, Chandigarh, we organised and executed the distribution of blankets to two hundred people.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We hold cash at bank of £14513.13. These funds are held in order to meet any expenditure that may occur.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our main source of funds, have been from individual donations, regular gift from local church (Christchurch, Harpenden), George Muller Trust, Give As you live, JMEM Switzerland, GIVT, Stewardship and Nochex.
