Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of Alrassed are to promote human rights (as set out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and subsequent United Nations conventions and declarations) in Libya as a current mission and throughout the MENA Region.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

- This year has been a difficult year for the CIO. We had plans for period within March 2020 and March 2021 however all have been delayed.
- Our strategy 2020-2023. Was proposed to finish in May 2020, however, due to the pandemic this is now delayed to a further date (expected to be May 2021).
- The strategy was to provide an overall strategic direction to the management of the organization and gives a specific direction to areas like financial strategy, marketing strategy, organizational development strategy and human resources strategy, to achieve success in execution.
- To cope with the new normal that resulted from the pandemic the CIO now has Zoom yearly membership to be able to maintain the lost communications and adapt to the new ways of working.
- We have also developed and improved the appearance and the capabilities of our website page.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about: policy on grant making;

- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

At Alrassed International we involve our volunteers in decision making. Our volunteers' work has become the driving force of positive change in our work in human rights cases.

Alrassed Intl refers to its' volunteers internally and externally, such as our Newsletters, websites where we mention and celebrate volunteering where relevant. We express our gratitude to all our volunteers that donating their time – without it we would not have achieved so much. We would like to also, thank the Volunteer centre Newcastle and London. We are very grateful for your support.

The Strategy 2020-2023 will allow a better understanding of grant making and providing the relevant mechanisms to manage the funds.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

- Raised our public presence through social media (Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram) & through extreme media.

- We have made a progressive proposal for our strategy 2020-2023 which is now available in Arabic/English. We currently have a well written draft in Arabic. Due to the pandemic this is now to be approved in To be approved in May 2021.

- We have developed and improved the appearance and the capabilities of our website page. This will help provide the necessary information for our stakeholders and keeping them connected with our activities.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	We hold cash at bank of £100 (unrestricted). These funds held in order to meet any unforeseen expenditure that may occur, the funds are also to make sure we pay our monthly subscription of £5 to CAF bank. We aim to hold around £500 and no more than £1500 in reserves at year end.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	Not applicable

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- Investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our main source of income this year has been from the trustees of the charity (CIO).

In the Strategy 2020 – 2023 we have outlined this issue of still depending on the trustees and highlighted the importance of applying for funds and grant making to ensure the development of Alrassed International and to achieve its outlined aims and objectives.
