Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To relieve the financial needs of individuals and families affected by the death of a young person, in particular but not exclusively between ages 16 - 24, by the provision of grants towards funeral costs, who are resident in south Yorkshire and the surrounding areas according to the laws of England and Wales as the trustees shall from time to time determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Dan's Helping Hand's main objective is to provide financial assistance for funeral costs to families of young adults who have died, primarily as a result of a terminal illness, such as cancer. This has been achieved by successful application for a grant of £500 per family to funeral costs.

In planning the activities for the year, the Trustees reviewed the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission at their Trustee Meetings.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

All applications for financial assistance are agreed by all Trustees following submission of an application form.

Application forms are countersigned by a social worker or specialist nurse that is aware of the families circumstances.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Third party individuals held fundraising events on behalf of Dan's Helping Hand; these included:

- Medium fundraising evening
- Collections boxes distributed in local grocery stores and public houses
- Sponsored events

As a result of the fundraising activities, Dan's Helping Hand was able to provide financial assistance to two families in the South Yorkshire area who met the acceptance criteria.

Dan's Helping Hand plans to continue a programme of fundraising events such as:

- Fundraising evenings – charity nights
- Sponsored events
- Virtual raffles

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Dan's Helping Hand does not currently have a 'reserves policy'.

Dan's Helping Hand does not plan to have a 'reserves policy'; however, this will be discussed at the Trustees Meeting.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Dan's Helping Hand relies on donations and fundraising events as its source of income.

Dan's Helping Hand holds no material investments and has no plans to do so.

Small amounts of expenditure have been made in order to generate funds, for example, the cost of purchasing collection boxes is less than the money collected in them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To relieve the financial needs of individuals and families affected by the death of a young person, in particular but not exclusively between ages 16 - 24, by the provision of grants towards funeral costs, who are resident in south Yorkshire and the surrounding areas according to the laws of England and Wales as the trustees shall from time to time determine.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Dan's Helping Hand's main objective is to provide financial assistance for funeral costs to families of young adults who have died, primarily as a result of a terminal illness, such as cancer. This has been achieved by successful application for a grant of £500 per family to funeral costs.

In planning the activities for the year, the Trustees reviewed the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission at their Trustee Meetings.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

All applications for financial assistance are agreed by all Trustees following submission of an application form.

Application forms are countersigned by a social worker or specialist nurse that is aware of the families circumstances.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Third party individuals held fundraising events on behalf of Dan's Helping Hand; these included:

- Medium fundraising evening
- Collections boxes distributed in local grocery stores and public houses
- Sponsored events

As a result of the fundraising activities, Dan's Helping Hand was able to provide financial assistance to two families in the South Yorkshire area who met the acceptance criteria.

Dan's Helping Hand plans to continue a programme of fundraising events such as:

- Fundraising evenings – charity nights
- Sponsored events
- Virtual raffles

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Dan's Helping Hand does not currently have a 'reserves policy'.

Dan's Helping Hand does not plan to have a 'reserves policy'; however, this will be discussed at the Trustees Meeting.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Dan's Helping Hand relies on donations and fundraising events as its source of income.

Dan's Helping Hand holds no material investments and has no plans to do so.

Small amounts of expenditure have been made in order to generate funds, for example, the cost of purchasing collection boxes is less than the money collected in them.
