Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- Objects
1. The prevention or relief of poverty or financial hardship anywhere in the world in particular but not limited to the city of Ibadan, Oyo State in Nigeria by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient.
  2. The promotion of racial harmony for the public benefit in Manchester and its environs by:
    - (a) promoting knowledge and mutual understanding between different racial groups;
    - (b) advancing education and raising awareness about different racial groups to promote good relations between persons of different racial groups;
    - (c) working towards the elimination of discrimination on the grounds of race.

The charity mobilises members of the public for educative trainings and workshops. Health promotion campaigns and family day out were undertaken to encourage health fitness and well-being of members. Football matches and other sports were organised for youths and children.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

The charity is run through donation from members as the main source of finance. Also, members act as volunteers in all organised events and also volunteer for the day to day administrative work; this volunteering thus help to minimise the charity expenses.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Throughout the year, we regularly organised educative events and activities within the community for children, youth and adults alike in order to bring everyone together without discrimination. This year community awareness and outreach day focused on society integration and citizenship participation.

We also had a fantastic year with the family/children day event. The fun fair event offers the opportunities for a broad range of people to get involved in community interaction and socialising thereby reducing long term effect of boredom on individuals. In addition, the day symbolised the celebration of the diversity of cultures in our society as people of different cultural backgrounds were present throughout the day.

Section C Objectives and activities

Objects

1. The prevention or relief of poverty or financial hardship anywhere in the world in particular but not limited to the city of Ibadan, Oyo State in Nigeria by providing or assisting in the provision of education, training, healthcare projects and all the necessary support designed to enable individuals to generate a sustainable income and be self-sufficient.
2. The promotion of racial harmony for the public benefit in Manchester and its environs by:
  - (a) promoting knowledge and mutual understanding between different racial groups;
  - (b) advancing education and raising awareness about different racial groups to promote good relations between persons of different racial groups;
  - (c) working towards the elimination of discrimination on the grounds of race.

No activity was conducted in this period as the charity was just recovering from the impact of COVID-19 where 2 of its trustees were lost to COVID pandemic.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

The charity is run through donation from members as the main source of finance. Also, members act as volunteers in all organised events and also volunteer for the day to day administrative work; this volunteering thus help to minimise the charity expenses. However, none of these activities took place during this reporting period because of the COVID-19 pandemic
