	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The advancement in life of young people aged between 13 and 25 by providing grants to enable them to access: recreational and leisure time activities provided in the interest of social welfare, designed to improve their conditions of life and support activities which develop their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as mature and responsible individuals.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The Get Exploring Trust charity provides grants to young people aged 13 to 25 to improve their conditions of life and support activities that develop their skills and abilities. The charity's main activities include providing access to recreational and leisure time activities that are designed to be in the interest of social welfare, as well as supporting activities that help young people participate in society as mature and responsible individuals. A specific example would be a group trip to Cornwall funded by GET for teenagers from Urban Adventure in East London.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have regard to guidance issued by the Charities Commission on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In 2021-2022, the activities of the Get Exploring Trust charity were minimal due to the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic. During this time, many countries implemented measures such as lockdown and social distancing to slow the spread of the virus. These measures impacted the charity's ability to carry out its usual activities, such as funding group and individual trips and expeditions to the outdoors, which were limited or suspended to comply with health and safety guidelines. Additionally, the financial impact of the pandemic also affected the charity's funding, making it more challenging for us to carry out their activities. Despite this, we were in receipt of some funds raised by individual supporters and donors.

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity met the limited demands made upon it and has made grants subsequent to this reporting period as activities have begun to normalise.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	N/A
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	Nil
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	The reason the Get Exploring Trust does not hold financial reserves is due to several factors. As a small charity we often have limited resources and limited funding and may not have the capacity to set aside a significant amount of money for reserves. Instead, they may use the funds they receive for their immediate needs. for direct impact, rather than setting aside money for future use.
