To promote and protect Good Health and Well-Being among people suffering from life limiting illnesses, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively by providing information, advice and practical support.	Para 1.17	Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document
St Bernard Support CIO continued to undertake a number of activities to help people affected by life limiting illnesses and terminal illnesses during the accounting year. St Bernard Support continued to work with a number of partners and organisations including GPs, hospices, hospital trusts, charities, support groups etc in delivering our services. St Bernard Support continues to operate on a nationwide basis. We provide our services either directly ourselves or by working with partners. One way we help people affected by life limiting illnesses is via our charity's financial well-being help sessions that promote financial well-being amongst people affected by life limiting illnesses. St Bernard Support continued to provide face to face help sessions (taking appropriate precautions where necessary regarding coronavirus and other infections). We also continued to provide our services online and by telephone. The help sessions and talks we have hosted have been informative and helpful to those who have attended them. Furthermore, we have worked with people affected by life limiting illnesses on an individual one-2-one basis by telephone, over the internet and in person when necessary.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.

By helping people affected by life limiting illnesses and terminal illnesses, St Bernard Support has benefited the wider community. continue providing independent financial advice regarding Defined Benefit pension transfers. Therefore Whitting Group have decided to begin winding down SBS Financial Services CIC. The charity has begun looking at alternative partners to provide a similar service. A key challenge is that the number of financial advisers offering independent financial advice regarding defined benefit pension transfers has reduced significantly in the past few years. The charity has also continued to provide our free will-writing service which will provide a future income to the charity via legacies from the individuals receiving free wills. The charity has continued to look to expand the services it offers to people affected by life limiting illnesses. We intend to do this by working in partnership with other individuals and organisations such as GPs, hospices and charities. We already provide our well-being services in partnership with other organisations and individuals and any expansion will only be limited by the size of our charity.

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote and protect Good Health and Well-Being among people suffering from life limiting illnesses, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively by providing information, advice and practical support.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	St Bernard Support CIO continued to undertake a number of activities to help people affected by life limiting illnesses and terminal illnesses whilst society recovered from the impact of the coronavirus pandemic. St Bernard Support continued to work with a number of partners and organisations including GPs, hospices, hospital trusts, charities, support groups etc in delivering our services. St Bernard Support continues to operate on a nationwide basis. We provide our services either directly ourselves or by working with partners. One way we help people affected by life limiting illnesses is via our charity's financial well-being help sessions that promote financial well-being amongst people affected by life limiting illnesses. St Bernard Support continued to provide face to face help sessions (taking appropriate precautions where necessary regarding coronavirus). We also continued to provide our services online and by telephone. The help sessions and talks we have hosted have been informative and helpful to those who have attended them. Furthermore, we have worked with people affected by life limiting illnesses on an individual one-2-one basis by telephone, over the internet and in person when necessary.

		By helping people affected by life limiting illnesses and terminal illnesses, St Bernard Support has benefited the wider community. Our actions in promoting the well-being of individuals and those that care for them as well as work with other partners has helped people affected by life limiting illnesses such as cancer, heart disease etc.

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The charity received no income in the 2022/2023 Accounting Year because it focussed on rebuilding its charitable activities rather than on fundraising activities.

A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The trustees take a proactive attitude in considering major risks and always seek effective ways to manage and minimise risks. The trustees have identified the major risks to which they believe the charity is exposed, these have been reviewed and systems have been established to mitigate against them. Injury to trustees, volunteers, members and activity participants. The charity ensures that all venues used by the charity for its activities have adequate insurance arrangements in place. Where necessary risk assessments are undertaken before all activities. Reduced income from fundraising. The charity is reliant upon income from donations and the generosity of the trustees and volunteers in deferring payment of expenses. The charity's strategy for dealing with reduced income from fundraising is to ensure that it manages its activities in proportion to the level of ongoing income, or the willingness of its trustees and volunteers to subsidise its activities. The charity has also benefited from goodwill from other organisations who have provided venues for meetings free of charge. This has helped reduced the charity's possible expenditure. Succession planning. The charity is heavily reliant upon volunteers to run and administer its activities. If there was a reduction in the number of volunteers the charity would have to reduce the scope and scale of its activities. In the worst case scenario, the charity would have to be wound up. Damage to the building, property and equipment. The charity's office address is rented. The owners of the building being responsible for insurance arrangements. The charity makes use of venues for holding meetings and seminars. Again, the charity ensures that these venues have appropriate insurance arrangements in place. Financial Arrangements. The charity has in place systems of internal controls that are designed to provide reasonable assurance

		against material mismanagement or loss. These include 2 signatories for all payments and a majority agreement amongst trustees for all spending commitments. Safeguarding of vulnerable clients. The charity helps people affected by serious, terminal and life limiting illnesses. Sometimes these clients are vulnerable. The charity operates a Safeguarding policy regarding its relationship with vulnerable clients and also acts to ensure that partners that the charity works with comply with the charity's safeguarding policy. The charity's Safeguarding policy is updated to comply with best practice. Protection of client data. Where the charity holds client data it ensures that it is held in compliance with data protection legislation. No client data is passed onto partners or other organisations without the consent of the client concerned. All clients are asked to sign a Client Agreement confirming their agreement to the holding of their personal data. The charity also ensures that partners that the charity works with have compliant data protection policies in place.

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The charity's principal source of funds in 2021/22 was income from its joint venture SBS Financial Services CIC. The charity also generated income from donations and a legacy thanks to the charity's will-writing service.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted	Para 1.46	The charity's investment policy is to hold its monies in a high street bank to prioritise security of its monies.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The trustees take a proactive attitude in considering major risks and always seek effective ways to manage and minimise risks. The trustees have identified the major risks to which they believe the charity is exposed, these have been reviewed and

		systems have been established to mitigate against them. Injury to trustees, volunteers, members and activity participants. The charity ensures that all venues used by the charity for its activities have adequate insurance arrangements in place. Where necessary risk assessments are undertaken before all activities. Reduced income from fundraising. The charity is reliant upon income from donations and the generosity of the trustees and volunteers in deferring payment of expenses. The charity's strategy for dealing with reduced income from fundraising is to ensure that it manages its activities in proportion to the level of ongoing income, or the willingness of its trustees and volunteers to subsidise its activities. The charity has also benefited from goodwill from other organisations who have provided venues for meetings free of charge. This has helped reduced the charity's possible expenditure. Succession planning. The charity is heavily reliant upon volunteers to run and administer its activities. If there was a reduction in the number of volunteers the charity would have to reduce the scope and scale of its activities. In the worst case scenario, the charity would have to be wound up. Damage to the building, property and equipment. The charity's office address is rented. The owners of the building being responsible for insurance arrangements. The charity makes use of venues for holding meetings and seminars. Again, the charity ensures that these venues have appropriate insurance arrangements in place. Financial Arrangements. The charity has in place systems of internal controls that are designed to provide reasonable assurance against material mismanagement or loss. These include 2 signatories for all payments and a majority agreement amongst trustees for all spending commitments. Safeguarding of vulnerable clients. The charity helps people affected by serious, terminal and life limiting illnesses. Sometimes these clients are vulnerable. The charity operates a Safeguarding policy

		regarding its relationship with vulnerable clients and also acts to ensure that partners that the charity works with comply with the charity's safeguarding policy. The charity's Safeguarding policy is updated to comply with best practice. Protection of client data. Where the charity holds client data it ensures that it is held in compliance with data protection legislation. No client data is passed onto partners or other organisations without the consent of the client concerned. All clients are asked to sign a Client Agreement confirming their agreement to the holding of their personal data. The charity also ensures that partners that the charity works with have compliant data protection policies in place.

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote and protect Good Health and Well-Being among people suffering from life limiting illnesses, their families and carers in particular but not exclusively by providing information, advice and practical support.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	St Bernard Support CIO continued to undertake a number of activities to help people affected by life limiting illnesses and terminal illnesses despite the coronavirus pandemic. St Bernard Support continued to work with a number of partners and organisations including GPs, hospices, hospital trusts, charities. support groups etc in delivering our services. St Bernard Support continues to operate on a nationwide basis. We provide our services either directly ourselves or by working with partners. One way we help people affected by life limiting illnesses is via our charity's financial well-being help sessions that promote financial well-being amongst people affected by life limiting illnesses. These help sessions have been held online as webinars because of the coronavirus pandemic. The help sessions and talks we have hosted have been informative and helpful to those who have attended them. Furthermore, we have worked with people affected by life limiting illnesses on an individual one-2-one basis by telephone, over the internet and in person when absolutely necessary. By helping people affected by life limiting illnesses and terminal illnesses, St Bernard Support has benefited the wider community. Our actions in promoting the well-being of individuals and those that care for them as well as work with other partners has helped people affected by life limiting illnesses such as cancer, heart disease etc.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees of the Charitable Incorporated Organisation have paid due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit. The trustees have ensured that this is embedded in the charity's activities and in its services to people affected by life limiting illnesses. The Charity continues to meet the Charity Commission's public benefit criteria under both the advancement of citizenship or community development headings. The charity advances citizenship and community development by the assistance it provides to people affected by illnesses, their families and carers.

Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	St Bernard Support does not have a formal policy regarding grantmaking. Given our size it is not possible for St Bernard Support to make grants to individuals or other organisations.
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38	St Bernard Support's policy on social investment is to ensure that all the charity's activities are aimed at benefiting the charity's users and wider society.
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	St Bernard Support has been greatly assisted by volunteers in helping the charity deliver assistance to people affected by life limiting illnesses and those that care for them. Additional assistance has been offered by other organisations that have referred clients on to the charity in order to benefit from our services. The charity's activities have also benefited from free publicity offered by other organisations who have been happy to publicise the charity's activities. Again, this has enormously benefited the charity in enhancing the services it has been able to provide to people affected by life limiting illnesses.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The main achievement of the charity in 2020/2021 continues to be helping people affected by life limiting illnesses and those that care for them. This is despite the coronavirus pandemic that has hindered our charity in providing our services. The charity continues to receive positive feedback from individuals that the charity has assisted. We have received both oral feedback and written statements of appreciation. The charity is always keen to receive feedback from stakeholders as this allows us to enhance and improve the services we offer. The charity has also received positive feedback from organisations we have helped or worked in partnership with. Again, we are always keen to seek feedback in order to ensure we meet the expectations of our partners and if possible, exceed them. The charity provides its services on a nationwide basis. We have had to temporarily suspend our venue based help sessions because of the coronavirus pandemic. Our services have been provided over the internet and by telephone. On some occasions it has been necessary to provide in person services. Recipients of our charity's services have found our assistance to be useful, informative and supportive in meeting their needs and requirements. The charity's online Well-Being webinars continue to be informative and useful for the people who have participated in them. The charity's partly owned not for profit joint venture SBS Financial Services CIC (Community Interest Company) also delivered services to clients. SBS Financial Services CIC is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) to provide independent financial advice to clients. SBS Financial Services CIC is now starting to deliver an income to the charity which has been useful given the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on our charity's activities.

		A key challenge faced by the charity during 2020 and 2021 has been dealing with the consequences of the coronavirus situation. Government restrictions have stopped the charity from running face to face help sessions. This has meant that most of the charity's services from March 2020 onwards have been provided either by telephone or over the internet. The charity will look to expand the services it offers to people affected by life limiting illnesses after the coronavirus situation has eased. We intend to do this by working in partnership with other individuals and organisations such as GPs, hospices and charities. We already provide our well-being services in partnership with other organisations and individuals and any expansion will only be limited by the size of our charity.
