- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity comprises the board of Trustees, all in the UK, and a Director on the ground of the first project area in Morocco.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

1. To promote sustainable development for the benefit of the public by:
  - (a) the preservation, conservation and the protection of the environment and the prudent use of resources;
  - (b) the promotion of sustainable means of achieving economic growth and regeneration.
2. To advance the education of the public in subjects relating to sustainable development and the protection, enhancement and rehabilitation of the environment and to promote study and research in such subjects provided that the useful results of such study are disseminated to the public at large.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Besides monitoring and maintenance of the various crops and trees planted in the previous years the charity can report no new initiatives. No monies were raised and, besides website costs, none were spent.

Regarding Public Benefit, the Trustees are confident that the Commission's guidance on the subject is satisfied in full.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.
