Structure, Governance and Management

Slough Development Education Centre is a registered charity governed by its governing document and managed by a Board of Trustees. The trustees are responsible for the overall direction, control, and supervision of the charity's activities. Trustees meet as required to review the charity's objectives, activities, and compliance with regulatory requirements.

New trustees are appointed in accordance with the governing document. Trustees are provided with information to ensure they understand their duties and responsibilities under charity law.

Objectives and Activities

Charitable Objects

The charity's objects are:

To further or benefit the residents of Slough and the neighbourhood, without distinction of sex, sexual orientation, race, or of political, religious or other opinions, by associating together the said residents and the local authorities, voluntary and other organisations in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure.

Activities and Public Benefit

During the reporting period, the charity did not carry out operational activities and did not receive or spend funds. The trustees confirm that they have had due regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's objectives and future plans.

Achievements and Performance

There were no financial or programme activities undertaken during the year ending 9 December 2025. The trustees focused on maintaining compliance with statutory and regulatory obligations and reviewing the charity's future direction.

Financial Review

Income and Expenditure

- Total Income: £0
- Total Expenditure: £0

The charity had no financial transactions during the reporting period.

Reserves Policy

As the charity had no income or expenditure during the year, no reserves were held. The trustees will review the reserves policy once the charity becomes operational and begins generating income.

Plans for Future Periods

The trustees intend to explore opportunities to restart activities aligned with the charity's objectives, subject to the availability of funding, partnerships, and volunteer support. Future plans include engagement with local authorities, voluntary organisations, and community members to advance education and social welfare initiatives in Slough.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations. The trustees confirm that:

- The report has been prepared in line with Charity Commission requirements.
- The trustees have taken reasonable steps to ensure the charity keeps adequate accounting records.
- The trustees have safeguarded the assets of the charity and taken steps to prevent fraud and other irregularities.

Declaration

The trustees declare that this report is accurate and complete to the best of their knowledge.
