Independent Examiner's Report

For the year ended 31 July 2025

We report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2025 set out on the pages four to eight.

This report is in respect of an examination carried out under section 149(3) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act). This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with the regulations made under Section 154 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). Our examination has been undertaken for no purpose other than to draw to the attention of the charity's trustees those matters which we are required to include in an independent examiner's report addressed to them. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to any party other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our examination, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of accounts. The charity's trustee consider that the audit is not required for this year under section 149(2) of the Act and that an independent examiner is needed.

It is our responsibility to: -

Examine the accounts under section 149 of the Act.

To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 149(5) of the Act; and –

To state whether matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of accounting kept by the charity and a comparison of accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosure in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedure undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In accordance with the examination, no matter has come to our attention, other than improvement needed to keep its records.

- Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that any material respect, the requirements.
- To keep accounting records inaccurate with section 130 of the Act; and
- To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting record and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; have not been met, or
- To which, in opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Notes to the Accounts

For the year ended 31 July 2025

Accounting policies

- Basis of preparation

The financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of recommended Practice (FRS102)' published in July 2014, and applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards.

- Going Concern

The trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about charity's ability to continue as a going concern. There are no material uncertainties affecting the current year's accounts.

- Income

All incoming resources are recognised once the charity has entitlement to resources, it is probable (more like than not) that the resources will be received and the monetary value of incoming resources can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Resource Expended

Resources expended are recognised in the period in which they are incurred. Costs of generating voluntary income comprise the costs associated with fundraising. Charitable expenditure comprises the costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services. Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the statutory requirements of the charity.

- Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees. Restricted funds can be used for particular restricted purposes within the projects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Independent Examiner's Report

We report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2021 set out on the pages four to eight.

This report is in respect of an examination carried out under section 149(3) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act). This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with the regulations made under Section 154 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act). Our examination has been undertaken for no purpose other than to draw to the attention of the charity's trustees those matters which we are required to include in an independent examiner's report addressed to them. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to any party other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our examination, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of accounts. The charity's trustee consider that the audit is not required for this year under section 149(2) of the Act and that an independent examiner is needed.

It is our responsibility to: -

Examine the accounts under section 149 of the Act;

To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 149(5) of the Act; and –

To state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of accounting kept by the charity and a comparison of accounts presented with those records. It also include consideration of any unusual items or disclosure in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedure undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In accordance with the examination, no matter has come to our attention, other than improvement needed to keep its records.

- Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that any material respect, the requirements;
- To keep accounting records inaccurate with section 130 of the Act; and
- To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting record and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; have not been met , or
- To which, in opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Accounting policies

- Basis of preparation

The financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of recommended Practice (FRS102)' published in July 2014, and applicable United Kingdom law and accounting standards.

- Going Concern

The trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about charity's ability to continue as a going concern. There are no material uncertainties affecting the current year's accounts.

- Income

All incoming resources are recognised once the charity has entitlement to resources, it is probable (more like than not) that the resources will be received and the monetary value of incoming resources can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Resource Expended

Resources expended are recognised in the period in which they are incurred. Costs of generating voluntary income comprise the costs associated with fundraising. Charitable expenditure comprises the costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services. Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the statutory requirements of the charity.

- Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees. Restricted funds can be used for particular restricted purposes within the projects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.
