We report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2023 set out on the pages four to eight.

This report is in respect of an examination carried out under section 149(3) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act). This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with the regulations made under Section 154 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act"). Our examination has been undertaken for no purpose other than to draw to the attention of the charity's trustees those matters which we are required to include in an independent examiner's report addressed to them. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to any party other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our examination, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of accounts. The charity's trustee consider that the audit is not required for this year under section 149(2) of the Act and that an independent examiner is needed.

It is our responsibility to: - Examine the accounts under section 149 of the Act.

To follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity commission under section 149(5) of the Act; and –

To state whether matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of accounting kept by the charity and a comparison of accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosure in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedure undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In accordance with the examination, no matter has come to our attention, other than improvement needed to keep its records.

- Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that any material respect, the requirements.
- To keep accounting records inaccurate with section 130 of the Act; and
- To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting record and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act; have not been met, or
- To which, in opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
