Although the Trustees have ultimate responsibility for the running of the Association they receive advice from the Honorary Governors who are elders of the community. In turn the Trustees appoint Secretaries to take responsibility for organising one of the range of the wide range of activities as well as for financial and administrative support. Secretaries are expected to regularly report back to the Trustees.

RISKS AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Trustees have overall responsibility for ensuring that TECA has appropriate systems of control, both financial and operational. These systems should be designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. The Trustees have recognised that there were some financial and operational risks and implementing an action plan to ensure that, as far as is reasonable, controls are in place to protect TECA, its Members, the general public and other stakeholders.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial Results For The Year

During the year TECA made a surplus of £120. Trustees would expect to make an occasional deficit as long as these are matched over time by compensating surpluses. Cash holdings remain healthy with £2,253 in the bank at year end. Full details of the results for the year are as shown in the Accounts.

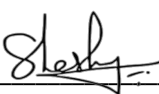

Reserves Policy

The aim of the Trustees is to ensure that TECA holds adequate reserves to allow it to continue its charitable objectives. Since there are neither paid staff, nor premises and since all activities should be self-funding. The Trustees believe that a reserve of £2,000 should be sufficient. However, as of 31 March 2022 reserves stood at £2,253. As there are no designated reserves the excess reserve funds will be deployed in the future in support of activities in line with charity objectives.

Plans for Future Periods

We are continuing to with existing range of events and activities. Trustees are also aware that they need to improve the Association's governance and financial systems including extending the online payment systems to minimise cash transactions.

Independent Examiner's report

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2022, which are set out on page 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given in the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention other than that disclosed above which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
