Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	To promote religious and racial harmony for the public benefit, in the Hall Green Area of Birmingham and in other such parts of the UK as the Trustees may from time to time think fit, in particular but not exclusively, to families and parents or carers with primary school aged children and those children themselves ('the beneficiary group') by promoting knowledge, mutual understanding and respect of the different races religious and cultures represented within the beneficiary group by facilitating informal and formal educational events and meetings.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity has been dormant this year. The charity usually runs events/training at which mothers and carers of primary school children from diverse races, religions and cultures have shared information about themselves and their backgrounds. More intimate events e.g. coffee mornings and tea afternoons are directed at facilitating more in-depth conversations; cookery events have encouraged more reticent women to start talking to each other by joining in and sharing their knowledge; an event was held at which local women showcased their handcrafts and were able to learn about each others' fashions and beauty regimes, the emphasis being on sharing information; an event was also run about gardening. The charity also worked alongside the local school's HSA. Regular events such as crafting and badminton have been launched previously. The knowledge gained by interacting with people who have backgrounds is then dispersed amongst the attendees' friends and families.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	During this period the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity commission on public benefit.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

	SORP reference
Policy on grant making	Para 1.38	The charity has minimal funds and does not intend to be making grants or investments. Usually, volunteers contribute their time, energy, food, funds and skills to ensuring that costs are kept to a minimum for beneficiaries/attendees
Policy on social investment including program related investment	Para 1.38
Contribution made by volunteers	Para 1.38	The charity is entirely run by volunteers

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference

Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	At a meeting on 24 April 2023 the Trustees decided to wind down the operations of the charity and spend all remaining funds on a cause that fell within the objects of the charity. The trustees agreed that the funds should be spent on a project that would enable the key objects of the charity to be carried forward by Hall Green Infant School and the Quakers, both of whom had been supportive of the charity and had worked with it previously on achieving its aims. The chair of MAF is remaining as a single trustee to explore the possibility of keeping open the charity and passing it on to another group of trustees, possibly via the Create Partnership Trust, a multi-academy trust working with four schools in deprived areas of Birmingham with pupils from mixed demographic backgrounds. The remaining funds have been duly paid out to the School to help fund a programme of peer mediation training for pupils, teachers and parents provided by the Central England Quaker's Peacemakers Project. The Trustees were satisfied that they had discharged their duties in accordance with their statutory responsibilities and in accordance with the charity's constitution and governing documents by taking this course of action.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The charity works with parents and children and therefore has a safeguarding policy. It works with people from diverse races, religions and cultures and has a diversity policy.

The charity works with local primary schools.

All trustees work for the charity on a voluntary basis, contributing their time and resources free of charge.

Risk assessments are undertaken of all events and training, and insurance cover is checked on an annual basis to ensure it is adequate for the charity's developing work.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote religious and racial harmony for the public benefit, in the Hall Green Area of Birmingham and in other such parts of the UK as the Trustees may from time to time think fit, in particular but not exclusively, to families and parents or carers with primary school aged children and those children themselves ('the beneficiary group') by promoting knowledge, mutual understanding and respect of the different races religious and cultures represented within the beneficiary group by facilitating informal and formal educational events and meetings.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The charity has been dormant this year due to the continuing effect of covid and illness.

The charity usually runs events/training at which mothers and carers of primary school children from diverse races, religions and cultures have shared information about themselves and their backgrounds.

More intimate events e.g. coffee mornings and tea afternoons are directed at facilitating more in-depth conversations; cookery events have encouraged more reticent women to start talking to each other by joining in and sharing their knowledge; an event was held at which local women showcased their handcrafts and were able to learn about each others' fashions and beauty regimes, the emphasis being on sharing information; an event was also run about gardening. The charity also worked alongside the local school's HSA.

Regular events such as crafting and badminton have been launched previously.

The knowledge gained by interacting with people who have backgrounds is then dispersed amongst the attendees' friends and families.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The charity has minimal funds and does not intend to be making grants or investments.

Usually, volunteers contribute their time, energy, food, funds and skills to ensuring that costs are kept to a minimum for beneficiaries/attendees.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Unfortunately, the charity has been dormant this year due to the after effects of covid, coupled with illness.

Section EFinancial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity currently has no regular outgoings save for insurance, website and rent and sufficient reserves are retained to cover this cost on an annual basis.
The need for a more extensive reserves policy is kept under review.

The charity has been able to run only limited events during this year due to covid.

The charity usually runs events/training at which mothers and carers of primary school children from diverse races, religions and cultures have shared information about themselves and their backgrounds.

More intimate events e.g. coffee mornings and tea afternoons are directed at facilitating more in-depth conversations; cookery events have encouraged more reticent women to start talking to each other by joining in and sharing their knowledge; an event was held at which local women showcased their handcrafts and were able to learn about each others' fashions and beauty regimes, the emphasis being on sharing information; an event was also run about gardening. Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As noted above, the charity has not been able to carry out its activities due the difficulties of meeting together during the pandemic.

We were able to run a zoom coffee morning and also ran a Scavenger Hunt on 9 July 2020 at Moseley Bog, a local protected woodland, which enabled us to make contact with some new parents.

Trustee meetings have continued at which plans have remained under review.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funds is currently:

- donations received from events to partially cover costs;
- donations from trustees/volunteers in the form of gifts of food and ongoing basic costs;
- fundraising from events

It is hoped that more formal funds and grants will have been applied for in the new financial year.

All expenditure this year has been made directly on the organisation's activities this year, other than basic running costs e.g. website and insurance
