Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The object of the CIO shall be the advancement of the orthodox Jewish faith.

The organisation manages a synagogue in Clapton, East London Avnei Kodesh (Holy Stones). The organisation provides facilities for public prayer, worship and religious study. The organisation also provides the services of a Rabbi and other religious services.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has managed to maintain between 60-70 worshipers. This greatly helped a lot of the Jewish people who live in the area to feel at home and has also provided them spiritual support. The synagogue provided the community with more Jewish books to support Jewish studies.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We do not have any reserves policy.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

There are no funds in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
