- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During 2024-2025 the charity was entirely funded by contributions from parents and by fundraising events and activities.

The charity did not receive any grants from any grant-making bodies.

During 2024-2025 an average of more than 200 children aged 4 to 16 attended the charity's weekly Arabic language lesson at its Saturday school.

On 28/06/25 We gave awards to students who have completed their GCSEs with us. We also made an end of year ceremony and we encouraged students in reading and borrowing books from the library's with rewards given to students who borrowed the most. The end of year ceremony was performed by students from various stages with pictures and videos taken. An album of pictures was also generated afterward. We also rewarded students who memorized the Quran.

Each Saturday 10 volunteer teaching assistants help run the classes, which are taught by 20 teachers employed on a sessional, self-employed basis. We also have recruited 3 supervisors for each stage for better control of the curriculum.

The charity's trustees attend each week have an overview and to undertake administrative and financial tasks.

During the year trustees took note of any comments and suggestions made by the parents and children attending the school. They also undertook an anonymous survey which produced positive feedback and revealed that the school is well regarded and valued by parents.

In addition to the formal teaching function of the school, it also serves an important social function in the life of the parents and children who are involved: bringing together people from different backgrounds to enjoy shared experience and culture of a common language.

In Ramadan, for the first we encouraged students in helping their family at home in exchange for a basic gift from their own family and giving the gifts (cloths, food or basic amount) to Al Medina Masjid in Brighton to be given to charity.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We aim to maintain a reserve of around £1,000, to cover unexpected cashflow issues.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

none

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

All income was derived from fees paid by parents for classes and from donations from parents and fundraising undertaken by trustees and parents.

All incoming funds were expended on charitable activities.

Independent Examiner's report on the accounts

Report to the trustees of Alnoure Academy CIO

Registered Charity number 1168582

Accounts year ended 31st August 2024

The accounts have been prepared on the Receipts and Payments basis.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. You consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to: examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act, to follow the procedures specified in the General Directions of the Charity Commissioners (under section 145 (5)(b) of the Act) and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

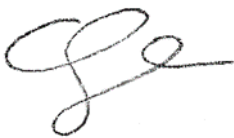

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters laid out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Report

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - (a) to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act: and
 - (b) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

- 1) To advance the education of the public in the subject of the Arabic Language
- 2) Such charitable purposes for the public benefit as are exclusively charitable according to the laws of England and Wales as the trustees may from time to time determine.

During 22-23 the charity ran a Saturday Arabic language school each Saturday during school term times.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During 2022-2023 the charity was entirely funded by contributions from parents and by fundraising events and activities.

The charity did not receive any grants from any grant-making bodies.

During 2022-2023 an average of more than 200 children aged 4 to 16 attended the charity's weekly Arabic language lesson at its Saturday school.

We also ran an Arabic lady's classes. These were attended by approximately 6 mothers.

9 students who had completed 4 years at the Saturday school sat their GCSE Arabic. 6 students were awarded A - A* grades and 3 students grade A. Also, for the first time, two students sat their A level Arabic and awarded A.

Each Saturday 20 volunteer teaching assistants help run the classes, which are taught by 18 teachers employed on a sessional, self-employed basis.

The charity's trustees attend each week have an overview and to undertake administrative and financial tasks.

During the year trustees took note of any comments and suggestions made by the parents and children attending the school. They also undertook an anonymous survey which produced positive feedback and revealed that the school is well regarded and valued by parents.

In addition to the formal teaching function of the school, it also serves an important social function in the life of the parents and children who are involved: bringing together people from different backgrounds to enjoy shared experience and culture of a common language.

After COVID, we didn't start any clubs yet, hopefully will start it in the following year.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) To advance the education of the public in the subject of the Arabic Language 2) Such charitable purposes for the public benefit as are exclusively charitable according to the laws of England and Wales as the trustees may from time to time determine. |
|---|

During 20-21 the charity ran a Saturday Arabic language school each Saturday during school term times. Due to COVID we suspend all activities during this period.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During 2020-21 the charity was entirely funded by contributions from parents and by fundraising events and activities. The charity did not receive any grants from any grant-making bodies.

During 2020-21 an average of 200 children aged 4 to 16 attended the charity's weekly Arabic language lesson at its Saturday school.

We also ran classes for adults. These were attended by approximately 6 students.

5 students who had completed 4 years at the Saturday school sat their GCSE Arabic. 4 students were awarded A* grades and one student grade A.

Each Saturday 14 volunteer teaching assistants help run the classes, which are taught by 16 teachers employed on a sessional, self-employed basis.

The charity's trustees attend each week have an overview and to undertake administrative and financial tasks.

During the year trustees took note of any comments and suggestions made by the parents and children attending the school. They also undertook an anonymous survey which produced positive feedback and revealed that the school is well regarded and valued by parents.

In addition to the formal teaching function of the school, it also serves an important social function in the life of the parents and children who are involved: bringing together people from different backgrounds to enjoy shared experience of a common language.

Due to COVID, we didn't start any clubs.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We aim to maintain a reserve of around £2,000, to cover unexpected cashflow issues.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

none

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

All income was derived from fees paid by parents for classes and from donations from parents and fundraising undertaken by trustees and parents.

The charity did not receive any grant funding during the year.

All incoming funds were expended on charitable activities.
