During 22-23 the charity ran a Saturday Arabic language school each Saturday during school term times.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During 2022-2023 the charity was entirely funded by contributions from parents and by fundraising events and activities.

The charity did not receive any grants from any grant-making bodies.

During 2022-2023 an average of more than 200 children aged 4 to 16 attended the charity's weekly Arabic language lesson at its Saturday school.

We also ran an Arabic lady's classes. These were attended by approximately 6 mothers.

9 students who had completed 4 years at the Saturday school sat their GCSE Arabic. 6 students were awarded A - A* grades and 3 students grade A. Also, for the first time, two students sat their A level Arabic and awarded A.

Each Saturday 20 volunteer teaching assistants help run the classes, which are taught by 18 teachers employed on a sessional, self-employed basis.

The charity's trustees attend each week have an overview and to undertake administrative and financial tasks.

During the year trustees took note of any comments and suggestions made by the parents and children attending the school. They also undertook an anonymous survey which produced positive feedback and revealed that the school is well regarded and valued by parents.

In addition to the formal teaching function of the school, it also serves an important social function in the life of the parents and children who are involved: bringing together people from different backgrounds to enjoy shared experience and culture of a common language.

After COVID, we didn't start any clubs yet, hopefully will start it in the following year.
