How the charity is constituted

Charitable Incorporated Organisation

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

General Charitable Purpose - To advance such charitable purposes (according to the law of England and Wales, and the tenets and doctrine of the Islamic faith belonging to the Ahl al-Sunnah wa al-Jamah) as the trustees see fit from time to time.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects

SUQYA Foundation currently makes grants/donations to other charitable organisations and individuals by way of one off and recurring contributions towards specific projects or needs.

SUQYA Foundation's grants contribute to enabling the establishing, running and maintaining of educational establishments, refugee camps, orphanages, shelters, counselling services, medical centres, soup kitchens and places of worship & contemplation for the benefit of the public, as well as climate positive activities, such as planting trees and funding carbon offsetting initiatives.

SUQYA Foundation's aim is to help and benefit people and the planet with lasting solutions to overcome abuse, hunger, homelessness, conflict and displacement; to provide education and social cohesion and climate positive change.

Achievements and performance

Through the grace of Allah our provision of emergency relief aid was sent to Syria and Palestine this year with ongoing grants in England and Wales continuing.

Sponsorship of primary and secondary school in Wales

Provided support to locals within England in need of financial support (mostly refugees, asylum seekers and Women's refuge centre)

Continuation of grants for:

Orphan sponsorship in Lebanon

Post diploma training programme for graduates of Higher Islamic Education training Imams and alike on how to deal with current wide-ranging social issues in the United Kingdom

The Foundation ended the year with total assets of £9,530, comprising £2,030 in cash at bank and £7,500 in investments, with no liabilities. This represents a 27% increase in total assets from the previous year, providing a solid foundation for future charitable activities.
