Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 1st July 2024 To 30th June 2025

Charity name: Friends of Think About Them

Charity registration number: 1168956

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Friends of Think About Them (FOTAT) aims to support the charitable work of Think About Them (TAT), a Kenyan Community Based Organisation (CBO) working in Nakuru, Kenya in such ways as shall be thought fit, by the provision of grants and raising awareness of the work of the organisation. TAT is a community-based organization (CBO) working towards improving the status of children in Nakuru, Kenya with special emphasis on the welfare of children living on the street. Activities are carried out through

- education / training
- the advancement of health or saving of lives
- the prevention or relief of poverty
- economic / community development / employment
- human rights / religious or racial harmony / equality or diversity

Best Interest of the Child has been a leading factor towards every input in place to attain the objectives. A lot of people have greatly contributed both in kind and cash. Since August 2016 to date, there has been a great progress in TAT as a program through its activities. So many people have come on board to assist achieving the dream. It has been a network of encouragement and teamwork.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The core activity for Think About Them this year has been the weekly meetings with those children and youths who are homeless. The sessions have taken place weekly until March 2024.

OUTREACH PROGRAMME

The weekly sessions held by TAT pre-pandemic were a crucial part of the project when TAT workers could contact the children and provide the essential support in terms of education, food, and a sense of wellbeing.

1. Weekly sessions

The weekly sessions were being attended regularly, however, due to staff difficulties these are currently on hold.

2. Youth Empowerment

Think About Them encourages the boys to be part of the agents of change for other children who are homeless. The TAT workers and counsellors disseminate the information to the boys at the group who are then encouraged to pass on this information to their peers. Education around sexual health and breaking down the myths about HIV/Aids is so important to give these children a chance. The open discussions based around fact and not fiction helps the boys to pass on accurate information and encourage others to protect themselves from sexually transmitted diseases.

NETWORKING

TAT continues trying to work with other stakeholders in the sector of child protection, government included. They recognize that TAT can only play a limited part of the change now. TAT has tried bringing the children's department closer to their work through the district children's office (DCO) and office of social welfare department of the local government.

FUTURE PLANS

1. Weekly Sessions

Weekly sessions are being reviewed and TAT will consider their strategies to best support the children living on the street.

2. Networking

TAT will continue to network with local authorities and other charities working with the homeless in Nakuru.

FRIENDS OF THINK ABOUT THEM PLANS

Think About Them future projects are currently on hold, and any future plans are being reviewed.

Financial Review

Total receipts for the year are £404. These are the recorded accounts for Friends of Think About Them from July 2024 to July 2025.

It has been a network of encouragement and teamwork.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The core activity for Think About Them this year has been the weekly meetings with those children and youths who are homeless. The sessions have taken place every week apart from a few occasions.

OUTREACH PROGRAMME

The weekly sessions held by TAT pre-pandemic were a crucial part of the project when TAT workers could contact the children and provide the essential support in terms of education, food, and a sense of wellbeing.

1. Weekly sessions

The weekly sessions are being held regularly and are well attended with an average of 20 children/young people per week.

2. Youth Empowerment

Think About Them encourages the boys to be part of the agents of change for other children who are homeless. The TAT workers and counsellors disseminate the information to the boys at the group who are then encouraged to pass on this information to their peers. Education around sexual health and breaking down the myths about HIV/Aids is so important to give these children a chance. The open discussions based around fact and not fiction helps the boys to pass on accurate information and encourage others to protect themselves from sexually transmitted diseases.

NETWORKING

TAT continues trying to work with other stakeholders in the sector of child protection, government included. They recognize that TAT can only play a limited part of the change now.

TAT has tried bringing the children's department closer to their work through the district children's office (DCO) and office of social welfare department of the local government.

1. Weekly Sessions

TAT will continue to hold the weekly sessions and try and support as many children as possible to return to their homes or to relatives in their community. For TAT to make a proper use of the funds available, TAT re-evaluated their activities thus putting more emphasis on the weekly sessions by readjusting our activities, and proposed the following.

- (a) Accommodate more children to the sessions as opposed to limiting them to the previous number of participants and ideally have two sessions per week not one.
- (b). increase attention to girls who are homeless thus have another female facilitator to help in the process.
- (c). reach out to those boys and girls that find it far to reach the sessions site by facilitating their transport.

2. Networking

TAT will continue to network with local authorities and other charities working with the homeless in Nakuru.

FRIENDS OF THINK ABOUT THEM PLANS

FOTAT will continue to support TAT with their weekly sessions and continue to liaise about plans to reopen the transition centre at some time in the future. Funding for this part of the TAT project is through monthly giving.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Friends of Think About Them (FOTAT) aims to support the charitable work of Think About Them (TAT), a Kenyan Community Based Organisation (CBO) working in Nakuru, Kenya in such ways as shall be thought fit, by the provision of grants and raising awareness of the work of the organisation. TAT is a community-based organization (CBO) working towards improving the status of children in Nakuru, Kenya with special emphasis on the welfare of children living on the street. Activities are carried out through

- education / training
- the advancement of health or saving of lives
- the prevention or relief of poverty
- economic / community development / employment
- human rights / religious or racial harmony / equality or diversity

Best Interest of the Child has been a leading factor towards every input in place to attain the objectives. A lot of people have greatly contributed both in kind and cash. Since August 2016 to date, there has been a great progress in TAT as a program through its activities. So many people have come on board to assist achieving the dream. It has been a network of encouragement and teamwork.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

The core activity for Think About Them this year has been the weekly meetings with those children and youths who are homeless. The sessions have taken place every week apart from a few occasions.

The closing down of the Transition Centre was a difficult time for Think About Them, however, on the plus side staff have been freed up to focus on managing and running the weekly sessions and this has been of great benefit to connect with and build relationships with the children and young people who are homeless.

OUTREACH PROGRAMME

The weekly sessions held by TAT pre-pandemic were a crucial part of the project when TAT workers could contact the children and provide the essential support in terms of education, food, and a sense of wellbeing. As restrictions gradually eased, TAT were able to start re-engaging within the changed social environment resulting from COVID19.

1. Weekly sessions

The weekly sessions are being held regularly and are well attended with an average of 20 children/young people per week.

2. Youth Empowerment

Think About Them encourages the boys to be part of the agents of change for other children who are homeless. Education around sexual health and breaking down the myths about HIV/Aids is so important to give these children a chance. With the easing of pandemic restrictions, it is hoped that some of the trustees may be able to visit Kenya sometime soon, and see first-hand, what the social situation looks like and how TAT can work more effectively and develop within their network that exists.

Objectives and Activities

Friends of Think About Them (FOTAT) aims to support the charitable work of Think About Them (TAT), a Kenyan Community Based Organisation (CBO) working in Nakuru, Kenya in such ways as shall be thought fit, in particular by the provision of grants and raising awareness of the work of the organisation. Activities are carried out through

- education / training
- the advancement of health or saving of lives
- the prevention or relief of poverty
- economic / community development / employment
- human rights / religious or racial harmony / equality or diversity

This year has not been without its fair share of challenges, especially as the global pandemic of Covid 19 continues to impact the world.

Best Interest of the Child has been a leading factor towards every input in place to attain the objectives. A lot of people have greatly contributed both in kind and cash. Since August 2016 to date, there has been a great progress in TAT as a program through its activities. So many people have come on board to assist achieving the dream. It has been a network of encouragement and teamwork.

Achievements and Performance

This last year has been incredibly challenging for TAT because of the global pandemic, which continues to cause difficulties, not only for the children living on the streets but also the volunteers and TAT workers who have been struggling to make ends meet in a very difficult economic climate.

This report will look at two elements of the work TAT was undertaking in Nakuru, and highlight the resilience of TAT as an organisation despite setbacks.

TRANSITION CENTRE

Pre-pandemic the transition centre was starting to achieve its goals of self-sustainability, helping more children transition back to their homes, and investment in projects such as solar installation and poultry egg laying.

During 2020/2021 TAT was able to reunite the two children who had been living at the centre with their families, and TAT supported them through this very difficult time. The centre also housed one other child temporarily before he returned to his mother. One of the original children did return to the centre to take his exams at school but then returned to the family.

In review with FOTAT in the UK and all the workers and volunteers in Kenya it was clear that maintaining the centre was not realistic given the current funds available and the manpower in Kenya. After much discussion and debate it was decided that given the current economic climate in Kenya the centre would close until such time as the team in Kenya could man the centre and give more of their time to the project.

This was a very difficult decision for the team and for the FOTAT team in the UK as the transition centre was seen as the perfect medium to help reunite these children with their families. However, all concluded that this closure may just be temporary and that it might be possible to reopen again in the future given a change in the economic climate.

OUTREACH PROGRAMME

The weekly sessions held by TAT pre-pandemic were a crucial part of the project when TAT workers could make contact with the children and provide the essential support in terms of education, food and a sense of wellbeing. Having to stop these meetings due to the Covid 19 pandemic was very hard, and TAT workers did everything they could to try and maintain contact with the children wherever they were.

1. Weekly sessions

Once the local government gave permission for public gatherings to recommence, TAT was once again able to hold the weekly sessions. TAT workers made every attempt to observe the set regulations by the government in conducting gatherings due to COVID-19 pandemic. General shift of public amenities caused a general change of how the sessions were conducted. When the hospital opened its venue for use during the weekly sessions, TAT had quite a difficult moment reaching out for the boys at their new sites.

A few football sessions were held, but the group discussions and lunch were still held weekly.

3. Youth Empowerment

In a small way, TAT supported one of the boys that used to come in the sessions start his own small business. This was done by purchasing a jikos (charcoal burner) and pan that he would use to start up a small business of cooking snacks.

NETWORKING

TAT continues trying to work with other stakeholders in the sector of child protection, government included. They recognize that TAT can only play our role to a certain extent.

TAT has tried bringing children's department closer to their work through the district children's office (DCO) and office of social welfare department of the local government.

Future Plans

THINK ABOUT THEM PLANS

1. WEEKLY SESSIONS

TAT will continue to hold the weekly sessions and try and support as many children as possible to return to their homes or to relatives in their community. For TAT to make a proper use of the funds available, TAT re-evaluated their activities thus putting more emphasis on the weekly sessions by readjusting their activities, and proposed the following ;-

- a) Accommodate more children to the sessions as opposed to limiting them to the previous number of participants and ideally have two sessions per week not one.
- b) Increase attention to girls living on the streets thus have another female facilitator to help in the process.
- c) Reach out to those boys and girls that find it far to reach the sessions site by facilitating their transport.

2. NETWORKING

TAT will do much on creating and strengthening teamwork with every like minded persons and institutions willing and able to work with them.

3. COVID-19 Considerations

As and when local government pandemic regulations change - TAT will re-evaluate where to spend their time and resources to have the best effect.

FRIENDS OF THINK ABOUT THEM PLANS

FOTAT will continue to support TAT with their weekly sessions and continue to liaise about plans to reopen the transition centre at some time in the future. Funding for this part of the TAT project is through monthly giving.
