In Jan- Mar 2024 Coalville CAN under took a youth survey. The results are now available – as a result of that a group of young people have been supported to come together in the local area. In 2024 the Filigi charity will be working with young people in Coalville, supporting them to have a voice and influence things that happen in the area.

A bank account is being opened and activities starting. Additional Trustees will be appointed to support the young people to manage this.
