Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Due to covid-19, children were not attending the classes as much as the previous years. We were helping the beneficiaries on a per need basis.

Evaluating individual needs for children with families, including but not limited to:

- providing basic food and shelter help
- assisting with complications that arose due to Covid-19
- organising mentorship and counselling whenever required
- Engaging with individual families by going to their homes
- Evaluating help required and how BMF could contribute to families with Children
- Focusing on Children's needs and people with Disabilities

The BMF Campaign walk 10000 steps for 100 days was a success, raised some much needed funds which will be used towards our purpose of helping the people in need as per our constitution.
