Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The midweek course has continued to provide high-quality training on Christian ministry and Bible teaching in a variety of contexts. This has enabled many more people to feel confident in their ability to advance the Christian faith in their local churches and communities across Devon and Cornwall. Likewise the termly day conferences have provided both teaching and encouragement for ministers serving in diverse communities and cultural contexts across the Peninsula. Church leaders connecting through the Peninsula Gospel Partnership and its activities have found helpful community and camaraderie. Some have gone on to lead their churches to partner with other local churches to advance the Christian faith and benefit their own local communities in a richer way.

Peninsula Gospel Partnership

Report of the trustees for the year ended 31 August 2021

The trustees who have served during the year are:

Rev'd Philip de Grey-Warter (Retired during year)
Rev'd Simon Austen
Mr John Pengelly
Mr George Meredith (Retired during year)
Mr Daniel Leafe
Mr Robert Styring

STRUCTURE GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The charity is constituted as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, first registered on 12 September 2016 and operates in Devon and Cornwall. The trustees serve for a fixed term before being required to retire. The organisation's Charity Number is 1169140.

OBJECTS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE CHARITY

Peninsula Gospel Partnership (PGP) is a partnership of local Christians with a shared vision, a network of local churches, promoting the gospel, sharing good practice, facilitating training and close contact with other regional Gospel Partnerships. PGP is unashamedly evangelical.

Central to the purpose of PGP is proclaiming the message of the cross as God's way of saving people from his coming judgement. It is the conviction of PGP that as the Bible is taught in the power of the Holy Spirit, God's voice is heard and sinners are brought to repentance and faith. It is primarily through the local church that believers are brought to faith in Christ and believers are built up in Him.

PGP has the following aims:

1. To strengthen local churches and encourage them to contend for Biblical Christianity
2. To train members of existing congregations for a wide range Bible-teaching gospel ministries in local churches
3. To encourage suitably gifted men and women to consider going into full time gospel ministry
4. To promote schemes for ministry trainees (apprentices)
5. To stimulate or plant congregations in areas where gospel ministry is weak or non-existent

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The Receipts and payments account shows an excess of receipts over payments of £3194 for the year leaving the charity with total assets of £13521 represented by cash at Bank of the same amount.
