Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In May 2024, the centre held a Mosquito event, the highlight of which was hosting Colin Bell, a former RAF Mosquito pilot! The event was very well attended by visitors from all over the country and raised several hundred pounds through donation and sales. Restoration of the Cold War cabin has progresses with it being made watertight and decorated internally. There are currently plans to try and restore some sort of electrical power to the cabin as the next stage. In September 2024 there was a Tornado Event, which was attended by over 150 visitors and featured talks on the history of the aircraft and operating it in various conflicts. This event also saw various donations of Tornado memorabilia gifted to the centre. The Centre was also donated a trail Highball bouncing bomb some time ago, a display stand was made enabling it to go on display! Elsewhere several hundred more articles were catalogues and added into the archive.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The digital archive was further expanded and now contains over 8,000 items or collections. In the spring of 2023, a redundant cold war cabin was recovered from within RAF Marham and relocated to the Centre. This is in the process of being restored and renovated, with a view to serving as an annex to the Centre. The ultimate goal will be to restore electrical power to it allowing various cold war displays to be housed within the cabin. The Heritage Centre held an event in October 2023 to commemorate the English Electric Canberra. The event was highly successful with approximately 250 guests across the entire weekend. Over the course of the year, the Heritage Centre welcomed in the region of 3,100 visitors, which included over multiple large group visits from a variety of schools, clubs and associations. In October 2023 the Centre ran an aviation patch event, which was a resounding success with several hundred visitors over a weekend. In November 2023, the Heritage Centre purchased a new computer and VR headset to allow visitors to experience the 'Berlin Blitz', which details the story of a 207 Squadron operational Lancaster sortie in WWII. This has proved so immersive and popular that a second set up is being considered, and also other missions are being looked at to further the capability the Centre offers.

Charity name: Marham Aviation Heritage Centre

Charity registration number: 1169314

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the CIO are <ul style="list-style-type: none">• To advance the education of the public in the history of RAF Marham and its place in UK aviation; and• To maintain a Heritage Centre for the exhibition of documents, items, artefacts and other materials related to RAF Marham, for benefit of the public.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The AHC is to open to the general public every Tuesday and Wednesday, along with the last Saturday of every month. Entry to the AHC is free.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	We confirm the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	In accordance with the Government guidelines, the Aviation Heritage Centre was closed down for extended periods due to COVID. Whilst these closures severely reduced visitor numbers for the FY, the AHC continued to sell books and merchandise remotely. Thankfully after meeting the COVID industry Standard Award, reopened to the general public on 18th May 2021. The digital archive was expanded and now contains over 3,500 items or collections. Some of the volunteers in the Heritage Centre, began to research the Mosquito era of the Stations history, with a view to publishing a book on the subject in early 2022. Whilst initial post-COVID visitor numbers were low, they increased throughout the year back to pre-COVID levels. The Heritage Centre launched a Tornado themed Gin, in conjunction with a local distillery. This proved to be a great success and raised a good amount of money for the Centre.
