

The Annual meeting of trustees reviewed the year's activity.

The team were called out on few occasions because of a lack of visitors due to the covid pandemic. Fortunately, on the few occasions we were called out, there were no fatalities during the year and our immediate intervention contributed to this success. We continue to give support to those in need, particularly visitors to our Pennine area who have no knowledge of emergency support here.

During the year we had an income of £260 from various sources including donations and collections and an expenditure of £32 The expenditure was only on minor consumables to maintain our service.
