- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Charlotte's BAG works solely with Kings College Hospital, London. Charlotte's Lab is a research facility set up in Charlotte's name at King's College Hospital, London. The Charlotte's BAG Team at King's College Hospital are evaluating different approaches for mutation detection.

We have using Charlotte's BAG Charity funding to invest in Oxford Nanopore Technology. This enables rapid DNA sequencing and data analysis in real time. Although still early, the results look very promising and should enable a full tumour classification in under 2 hours of the sample being taken in surgery. Further improvements to this new workflow could support a full molecular analysis within one week and have all results available by the first clinical assessment meeting. This is 3x faster than our current approach. This increased speed of diagnostics will reduce patient anxiety and allow better care planning from an earlier time point.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide funds to perform research into Glioblastoma and other types of brain tumours. Ensuring that the results of such research are published. To advance the education of the public, in particular those involved in the diagnosis, treatments and care of those suffering from brain tumours.

Information about glioblastoma is provided on our website
www.charlottesbag.com

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

For the Year 2024 – 2025 Charlotte's BAG raised £21806.37. We did not give any funding to Kings College Hospital for the above year/s but we will be funding them this year with their ongoing research (see above).

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Charlotte's BAG does not hold reserves per se, because our funds are earmarked for specific projects.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

We do not feel it necessary to hold allocated reserves because we have no salaries and no overheads (office advertising etc.) This approach means that every single penny in every single pound we raise goes to Charlotte's BAG, and this is very much appreciated by our donors.

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees	Charlottes Bag
On accounts for the year ended	March 2025	Charity no (if any)	1169419
	Set out on pages 1

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]]. Delete [] if not applicable.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Charlotte's BAG works solely with Kings College Hospital, London. Charlotte's Lab is a research facility set up in Charlotte's name at King's College Hospital, London. The Charlotte's BAG Team at King's College Hospital are evaluating different approaches for mutation detection. This will be useful for monitoring patients after a diagnosis has been made. The Team are investigating a highly sensitive means of mutation detection which, it is hoped, will permit the detection of one molecule in 10,000-100,000. Such a means of detection enables oncologists to understand if surgery or therapy has been effective. Staff have been employed, consumables have been ordered and a company has been contacted for the acquisition of an instrument with which to carry out the research. The Team will use the research to assess further whether it is possible to classify tumours from cerebrospinal fluid without removing tumour tissue. As a member of the Team stated, though very early days, 'this technology could be the future of brain tumour diagnostics.'

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide funds to perform research into Glioblastoma and other types of brain tumours. Ensuring that the results of such research are published. To advance the education of the public, in particular those involved in the diagnosis, treatments and care of those suffering from brain tumours.

Information about glioblastoma is provided on our website
www.charlottesbag.com

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

For the Year 2022 – 2023 Charlotte's BAG raised £30938.00. We gave Kings College Hospital £42,000 in June 2022 to assist on a project to see if it is possible to get a genetic diagnosis of brain tumours by analysing the fluid around the brain this project continues.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Charlotte's BAG does not hold reserves per se, because our funds are earmarked for specific projects.

- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

We do not feel it necessary to hold allocated reserves because we have no salaries and no overheads (office advertising etc.) This approach means that every single penny in every single pound we raise goes to Charlotte's BAG, and this is very much appreciated by our donors.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended DD / MM / YYYY.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

This year another £25,000 has been used to fund another biomedical scientist to work within Charlotte's LAB, Kings College Hospital, London. Another £30,000 will be ring-fenced at for King's College, London. At Charlotte's Lab, our charity's biomedical scientists have been successful in demonstrating the efficacy of DNA methylation methods as a means to greatly enhance the speed and accuracy of tumour diagnosis.

Preliminary results have been positive; they show a faster and more accurate way of classifying tumours.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Charlotte's Bag

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Charlotte's Bag ("the Trust") for the year ended 5 April 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination of the accounts of the Trust and the bookkeeping entries that support them.

I am satisfied that :-

1. bookkeeping entries are consistent with and support all items of the accounts.
2. supporting documents, for all those bookkeeping entries – except where there would normally not be such documentation – eg donation via internet
3. any queries that I raised during the course of the examination have been responded to satisfactorily with supporting documentation.
4. I have no concerns and have come across no other matters to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts.

This just leaves me to thank the trustees once more for their cooperation.
