Trustees’ Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and Accounts in accordance with applicable charity law. The trustees have given consideration to the major risks to which the charity is exposed and satisfied themselves that appropriate procedures are in place to manage those risks.

Objects

The governing instrument is the Constitution, which came into effect in July 2015. The object of The Wilberforce Society is to advance the education of students and of the public more generally for the public benefit, in particular but not exclusively by:

- 1) promoting the discussion, the consideration of, and research into matters of public life or importance;
- 2) publishing results of research and discussion on matters of public life or importance;
- 3) hosting educational events including, but not limited to, conferences and lectures on topics of public life or importance; and
- 4) providing opportunities to encourage the exchange of ideas.

The Trustees have given consideration to the Charity Commission’s public benefit guidance and are satisfied that each of the activities detailed in this Annual Report and Accounts meet the public benefit requirement in advancing the education of students and of the public at large.

Trustees’ Report

The Society had a successful year in 2024-25, under the leadership of Eliška Hauferova and Rafael Karapetian as successive Executive Chairs. A well-attended annual conference was held at the Cambridge Union in March 2025, and substantial policy papers written on 4 main topics: the UK’s trade relationship with the EU; behavioural economics in policymaking; government debt sustainability; and UK labour market flexibility. TWS’s Digital Journal has also seen substantial growth, with 28 articles written throughout the year, including 17 in collaboration with the Oxford Diplomatic Dispatch and 2 with the Telos Group. In total, more than 60 Cambridge students have applied to write for TWS over the past year. Alongside this, TWS has significantly grown The Policy Podcast, recording 28 episodes. Guests this year have included Lord Wilson of Dinton, Sir Desmond Swayne MP, Baroness Finlay of Llandaff, Professor Manfred Kets de Vries, and many more academics, politicians and others.

Annual Report and Accounts

The Wilberforce Society

The Wilberforce Society (“TWS”) is a registered charity, governed by its Trustees. The Trustees hereby submit TWS’s Annual Report and Accounts for the year ended 31 August 2024.

Trustees’ Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and Accounts in accordance with applicable charity law. The trustees have given consideration to the major risks to which the charity is exposed and satisfied themselves that appropriate procedures are in place to manage those risks.

Objects

The governing instrument is the Constitution, which came into effect in July 2015. The object of The Wilberforce Society is to advance the education of students and of the public more generally for the public benefit, in particular but not exclusively by:

- 1) promoting the discussion, the consideration of, and research into matters of public life or importance;

- 4) providing opportunities to encourage the exchange of ideas.

The Trustees have given consideration to the Charity Commission’s public benefit guidance and are satisfied that each of the activities detailed in this Annual Report and Accounts meet the public benefit requirement in advancing the education of students and of the public at large.

Trustees’ Report

The Society had a successful year in 2023-24, under the leadership of Eunice Chong and Eliška Hauferova as successive Executive Chairs. A well-attended annual conference was held at the Cambridge Union in February 2024, and policy papers published on topics including sustainable development and asylum inequalities. The society’s successful policy podcast has grown its audience. A collaboration with the international On Think Tanks network has proved fruitful, with TWS sending delegates to an OTT conference in July and collaborating on policy topics including democratic backsliding and the housing crisis. Lastly, the society has made significant progress in building and formalising its alumni network, which now holds regular events in London.

George Stokes (appointed 20 June 2022)

Trustees’ Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and Accounts in accordance with applicable charity law. The trustees have given consideration to the major risks to which the charity is exposed and satisfied themselves that appropriate procedures are in place to manage those risks.

Objects

The governing instrument is the Constitution, which came into effect in July 2015. The object of The Wilberforce Society is to advance the education of students and of the public more generally for the public benefit, in particular but not exclusively by:

- 1) promoting the discussion, the consideration of, and research into matters of public life or importance;
- 2) publishing results of research and discussion on matters of public life or importance;
- 3) hosting educational events including, but not limited to, conferences and lectures on topics of public life or importance; and
- 4) providing opportunities to encourage the exchange of ideas.

The Trustees have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission’s public benefit guidance and are satisfied that each of the activities detailed in this Annual Report and Accounts meet the public benefit requirement in advancing the education of students and of the public at large.
