Trustees

The charity was managed during the year by the trustees comprising:

The Reverend Canon Professor A G Milbank	Professor G R Davie
The Reverend Canon J D T Hawkey	The Reverend Canon J A Walters
The Reverend Canon N Sagovsky

New trustees are appointed by a resolution of the trustees passed at an ordinary or special meeting.

Principal Addresses and Advisers

The Charity operates from Lambeth Palace, Lambeth Palace Road, London SE1 7JU.

The Independent Examiner is Carol Rigby.

Objects and Aims

The charitable objects of the AET Trust are the advancement of Christian education for the public benefit and the advancement of religious education for the public benefit by supporting the work of the Archbishop's Examination in Theology/Lambeth Research Degrees in Theology (AET/LRDT); including by supporting the Academic Board and/or the Council of Management of the AET/LRDT and by the award of grants for tuition and research (such awards being subject to a limitation). The AET/LRDT permits a limited number of postgraduate students to study for the degrees of MPhil and PhD in Christian Theology to the standards of the best UK universities. The degrees are granted by the Archbishop of Canterbury under powers deriving ultimately from the Ecclesiastical Licences Act of 1533 and preserved in subsequent legislation, including most recently the Higher Education and Research Act (HERA) 2017. For legal reasons, the scheme is open only (albeit with technical exceptions subject to legal scrutiny) to nationals of countries which retain the British monarch as their head of state.

Organisation

The charity is managed by its trustees and administration is carried out in accordance with the trustees by the Council and the Academic Board.

Main Activities and Achievements

Now in its 15th year of providing for such higher research degrees, the scheme is in good health, with a full complement of students and welcome signs of increased diversity amongst them. The scheme is solvent, with reserves which have grown from a combination of greater student numbers and reduced expenditure, especially on travel, during the Covid restrictions. The website continues to attract interest and potential new students. Under a new Director, appropriate standards have been maintained. Two students will be awarded the degree of PhD for their theses in 2022.

Reserves Policy

The trustees' policy on reserves is to maintain sufficient funds for current and planned future activity.

Risk Policy

The trustees periodically review the major risks to which the charity might be exposed and systems or procedures have been established to manage those risks.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- observe the methods and principles in the charities SORP;
- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Right Reverend Dr J G Inge - Trustee
