- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The trustees of the Charity have assessed their performance as successful for the period in which establishment, and increased awareness of the Charity has taken place by carrying out it's objectives as stated above.

Fundraising activities during the period was that of receiving donations from the public and community the charity aims to serve in carrying out its objectives as per the governing document.

As this is the first period the charity as operated since it's formation, the main difference the charity has made is in it's establishment and presence in society.

The degree to which the charity has benefited the wider society has been in the form of obtaining funds from donations and advertising itself to the public and community it wishes to serve.

This has been in the form of holding meetings between the members and trustees as to how they are to reach out to the wider community and achieve their objectives as defined in the governing document.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

It is the general policy of the charity not to accumulate or hold reserves other than those which are to be expensed in the following period on activities and other general expenses in order to achieve its objectives. It is not yet possible to quantify this amount until the charity has become fully established where costs can be accurately predicted.

However, given the main objective of the charity in the short-term future is that of obtaining a premises from which it can carry out its objectives, the charity may initially hold material reserves as it is not possible to quantify the amount of reserves required until such a transaction materialises.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The trustees consider the financial performance by the charity during the year to have been satisfactory.

During the period, the charity received donations of £21,385, and incurred expenditure of £2,250.
