

CHARITY COMMISSION
FOR ENGLAND AND WALES

Trustees' Annual Report for the period

From 10th October 2020 Period start date

To 9th October 2021 Period end date

Charity name: Zenith Youth Theatre Company

Charity registration number: 1169585

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objectives of the CIO are:- <ul style="list-style-type: none">To educate young people in the dramatic/musical arts and theatre studies, and to further the development of public appreciation and taste in the said arts.To provide practical experiences in all aspects of theatre production to young people.To engage with young people who otherwise might not see musical theatre as a means of enhancing life chances and opportunity.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	Cast members are tasked to study their characters and are given guidance on how these characters are portrayed to the public. They are asked to practice their dances, songs and lines outside of the rehearsal process. Where appropriate, cast members are encouraged to reflect on how the characters and the shows values may not 'fit' within a modern society. Sadly, it was not possible to perform our planned February show, Chicago, due to Covid restrictions and so it had to be cancelled. However, in April we began rehearsals in person for three shows as part of our 'Not the Edinburgh Fringe' festival. The cast were placed in one of three shows in order to make each cast under the 15 allowed to rehearse socially distanced in our rehearsal hall. These shows were Wind in the Willows, aimed at a young audience, Little Shop of Horrors and Spring Awakening for an over 16 cast and audience. Each musical was performed 3 times over a 9-day period in an open-air venue and both the cast and audience were socially distanced to comply with all current covid regulations. This proved hugely successful and gave both the members and volunteers a new theatre experience and associated challenges to overcome. Zenith shows are promoted through website, social media, word of mouth and leaflet drops across all socio-economic groups in and around Bath. In addition, we produce a quarterly newsletter which is available via email and through our website.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	With reference to the statutory guidance on public benefit, the Trustees continue to promote a 'No Audition Policy' to become a member of Zenith Youth Theatre Company. In addition, due regard is given to ticket pricing and the continuation of offering tickets at concessionary rates.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Zenith cast members performed in one of three musicals in this year, as detailed above. They were well received and were a useful learning tool for both the cast and the volunteers. Extra equipment was purchased to enable us to perform outside and this will be utilised in future productions. In November 2021 we won the Rose Bowl Award for the best youth production for Spring Awakening. We also received nominations for Best Youth actress for Spring Awakening, Best Youth Production for Pinocchio (our Feb 2020 production) and best creativity/Design for Pinocchio.

Achievements against objectives set	Para 1.41	The Company undertook three shows in very challenging circumstances in order to ensure that our objectives were met. We provided a unique theatrical experience for our members, volunteers and audience. These outdoor productions were a first for Zenith Youth Theatre and every performance sold out.
Performance of fundraising activities against objectives set	Para 1.41	Due to the pandemic, fundraising was not possible, but expenditure was also low. The landlords for our rehearsal space were kind enough to waive our rent for a large period of the lockdown.
Investment performance against objectives.	Para 1.41

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Due to the pandemic our income and expenditure was much lower than normal. However, we still ended the year on a high following our 3 outdoor performances in July. Because of the excellent support we received for these performances we were able to show a surplus at the year end.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity policy is to ensure that we hold enough reserves to cover any outstanding costs due to cancelation of a show through unforeseen circumstance.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£0 (excluding funds already allocated).
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23

Accounts for the year ended

09 October 2021

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Zenith Youth Theatre Company

I report on the receipts and payments account of the Charity for the year ended 9 October 2021, which are set out on pages 1 to 4

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

1. examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
2. to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act
3. to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

1. to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act and
2. to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act have not been met or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached
