For the public benefit, the advancement of the Christian Faith in accordance with the Statement of Belief.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Heading Home Ministries, located in Chepstow, South Wales is a Christian based charity focused on providing a range of services to people whose lives have, or are, being destroyed because of their addiction to drugs and/or alcohol. We provide a rehabilitation referral by referring individuals to our partner's rehabilitation facilities.

In addition, we provide Christian based worship & Bible study services to a range of individuals.

During this reporting year we continued to provide resources support to Love and Blessings Orphanage in Kissi, Kenya, Africa .

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the yearCharitable Activities and Public Benefit

During the reporting year, the charity continued to support individuals struggling with addiction by referring them to partner rehabilitation facilities where appropriate care and recovery programmes are available.

The charity also continued to provide Christian activities, including weekly Bible study meetings held on Friday and Saturday evenings, which contribute to the spiritual wellbeing and community support of participants.

In addition, the charity maintained its ongoing support for Love and Blessings Orphanage in Kissi, Kenya. This support included the provision of food, clothing, and educational supplies for the children, as well as financial assistance towards the construction of new toilet and shower facilities to improve living conditions.

During the year, the charity also initiated a long-term self-sustainability project in collaboration with the leadership team at Love and Blessings Orphanage. This project involved the establishment of a brick-making enterprise aimed at enabling the orphanage to become financially self-sufficient within the next five years.

An initial production of approximately 30,000 bricks will be used to construct dormitory accommodation for the orphanage, removing the need to continue renting external buildings. Subsequent brick production will be sold commercially, generating sustainable income to support the orphanage's ongoing operational costs.
