Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

(1)

To advance the religion of Islam, by means of, but not exclusively, promoting the teachings and tenets of Islam, provision or assistance in the provision of facilities for worship and Islamic education particularly, but not exclusively, in Bangladesh, in accordance with the teachings of the Quran and Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings be Upon Him);

To relieve financial hardship, distress and suffering among poor people, victims of natural disasters and other people in need particularly, but not exclusively, in Bangladesh, by means of, but not exclusively, making grants or loans for providing or paying for items, equipment, services and facilities, including the provision of food, clothing, and accommodation for the said persons;

(3)

To provide or assist in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social circumstances particularly, but not exclusively, in Bangladesh with the object of improving their conditions of life;

To advance education for the benefit of the poor, the underprivileged and the general public by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or the assistance in the provision of educational activities and facilities, such as schools, supplementary schools, nurseries and training centres.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During the year the charity benefitted over 65 children with regular education at the community centre built for this purpose. Also, the charity benefitted over 30 poor people with grants for food and basic necessities. Also, the charity also supported flood relief for 20 victims of Pakistan floods. The trustees have had due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit and are satisfied that they are furthering the benefits for people in Bangladesh by establishing a place for education and prayer for children and adults in Binodpur.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document.

(1)
To advance the religion of Islam, by means of, but not exclusively, promoting the teachings and tenets of Islam; provision or assistance in the provision of facilities for worship and Islamic education particularly, but not exclusively, in Bangladesh, in accordance with the teachings of the Quran and Sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace and Blessings be Upon Him);

(2)
To relieve financial hardship, distress and suffering among poor people, victims of natural disasters and other people in need particularly, but not exclusively, in Bangladesh, by means of, but not exclusively, making grants or loans for providing or paying for items, equipment, services and facilities, including the provision of food, clothing and accommodation for the said persons;

(3)
To provide or assist in the provision of facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure time occupation of individuals who have need of such facilities by reason of their youth, age infirmity or disability, financial hardship or social circumstances particularly, but not exclusively, in Bangladesh with the object of improving their conditions of life;

To advance education for the benefit of the poor, the underprivileged and the general public by means of, but not exclusively, the provision or the assistance in the provision of educational activities and facilities, such as schools, supplementary schools, nurseries and training centres.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The trustees have had due regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit and are satisfied that they are furthering the benefits for people in Bangladesh by establishing a place for education and prayer for children and adults in Binodpur.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year:

The charity has successfully supported the establishment of a community centre building in Binodpur area of Bangladesh, by supporting the costs for completing the building and the cost of teacher salaries. During the year, the trustees supported the cost of part of the extension of the 1st floor to add an extra level of classrooms. This facility has benefitted at least 80 people locally.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves:

The charity secured donations of £6,246 from the general public and grant making institutions and spent £6,015 of which £4,943 was in grants for the building in Bangladesh. The surplus was added to the reserves which are held for future charitable expenditure and administration costs. The trustees have a policy not hold the reserves beyond using the surplus for future expenditure.

Details of any funds materially in deficit:

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
