Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To act as a resource for young people by providing advice and assistance and organising programmes of physical, educational and other activities as a means of:

(a) advancing in life and helping young people by developing their skills, capacities and capabilities to enable them to participate in society as independent, mature and responsible individuals;

(b) advancing education;

(c) relieving unemployment;

(d) providing recreational and leisure time activity in the interests of social welfare for people living in the area of benefit who have need by reason of their youth, age, infirmity or disability, poverty or social and economic circumstances with a view to improving the conditions of life of such persons.

The Foundation provides a year-round programme of personal development training inspired by physical activity and belonging within cricket for young people in East London who fulfilled criteria based on social, educational (behavioural) and economic circumstances in the form of an Academy for ages 11 to 18 based at Bridge Academy (a state school in Hackney) and at Hackney Marshes.

In setting the charity's objectives and planning its activities the Trustees have given careful consideration and regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)
