Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

For the public benefit to promote the education of young people in Ghana by awarding scholarships, maintenance allowances or grants to support further or higher education. To provide and prepare learners for entry into an occupation, trade or profession on leaving full time school and assist in developing life skills needed for independent living.

To fund raise and gain sponsorship for learners to complete appropriate training / educational courses.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

All trustees of Learning For Life Ghana are volunteers and do not receive any financial remuneration for their efforts in achieving the aims of the charity.

The FCDO 'Tools For Teachers' project completed in 2022, trained 180 Ghanaian teachers in how to support children with SEN in their classroom. The training was from a literacy perspective and gave guidance, advice and resources to each teacher. Identifying local 'hub teachers' to promote new teaching techniques has made the training locally sustainable. Feedback continues to advise that skills learned are still being shared amongst local teachers and children are continuing to improve their literacy skills through these approaches to learning.

LFLG volunteers in Ghana and UK continue to oversee the establishment of young learners into further and higher education training opportunities.

LFLG have a strong policy portfolio in place that is reviewed annually by the trustees.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

LFLG is presently supporting 15 students in a variety of learning environments :

University (following degrees in Economics, Health Science and Chemistry)

SHS

Seamstress School

Physiotherapy College

Apprenticeships in mechanical engineering, constructional engineering, electrical engineering and hair and beauty.

IT training school following a variety of computer courses.

12 learners completed their studies/training courses this year and have now gained full time employment.

Provided early years and primary classroom resources for teachers and pupils in several schools in the greater Accra district.

Collection of donated educational resources shipped to Ghana and distributed to schools and young learners.

Detailed due diligence portfolio of Learning For Life Ghana policies updated and signed by trustees.
