Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the organisation are to provide support to persons and families - to those either settled or recently displaced - through educational, moral, and material support - and through any other support as may be deemed appropriate. In addition, to provide a welcoming space in which to share languages, cultures and ideas, to the benefit of all in the Oxford area and beyond.

The 2022-23 year saw a pause to some core activities due to the Covid-19 pandemic. Community events and meetings had to be cancelled, and the charity focussed on individual case support. Notwithstanding reduced capacity in the charity, it organised a community celebration for the Kurdish New Year in March 2023.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Supporting individual cases following the pause in core activities due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

Celebrating Kurdish New Year with a community event in March 2023.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Reserves are currently small and held in a current account. No major fundraising campaigns have been implemented in this year.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Donations from individuals remain the only source of funding.
