Activities

Objects: THE PROTECTION OF HEALTH, THE RELIEF OF POVERTY AND THE ADVANCEMENT OF EDUCATION OF THE PEOPLE LIVING IN TANZANIA, PARTICULARLY THE RURAL COMMUNITIES AROUND ARUSHA BY THE PROVISION OF ITEMS, GOOD AND SERVICES TO IMPROVE LIVING CONDITION AND QUALITY OF LIFE.

Activities: Working to provide basic needs to rural Tanzania. At present we are working on getting clean, fresh water to 14,000 people in the Masai area of Tanzania. These people deserve to access basic needs we take for granted. We also support the local primary school in Lengijave at present and have managed to install electricity into part of the school across a gorge and glaze windows.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The protection of health, the relief of poverty and the advancement of education of the people living in Tanzania, particularly the rural communities around Arusha by the provision of items, good and services to improve living condition and quality of life.

The charitable objectives of the charity are at the heart of all decision making that the Trustees undertake to ensure there is public benefit.

The Trustees have regard to the Charity Commission public benefit requirements and consider that the charities objectives meet these requirements.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The charity has held a small number of events and a popular charity buffet evening to raise funds for the charity. The events were also an opportunity to improve the exposure of the charity and its objectives.

During the period the charity also received specific donations for a number of projects including continued support of student's education, health promotion and large donations towards a new water project. Funds for these specific objectives have been used as the requirement arises to support individuals in Tanzania.

At the year end restricted funds for specific projects amounted to £5,533 and will continue to be used for the designated purposes after the year end.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We aim to maintain a small reserve to cover on going costs and to allow the initial funding of charitable events and for larger projects which at present includes the ongoing maintenance of the village school and further health projects.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Tumaini Jipya – New Hope

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the charity receipts and payments accounts for the year ended 30 November 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

As for part of the year the Covid 19 restrictions had been lifted charity held a small number of events and a sponsored walk to raise funds for the charity. There was also a number of presentations have been made at local community groups in order to improve the exposure of the charity and its objectives.

The main project undertaken during the year was the building of a girls hostel. This was funded by a number of individuals making substantial donations to allow this work to be undertaken. The project was a great success and requests for further projects have been received.

During the period the charity also received specific donations for a number of projects including continued support of student's education, health promotion and towards the building of a church.

At the year end restricted funds for specific projects amounted to £33,731 and with some of these funds being used for these purposes after the year end and for future work once additional funds have been raised for the projects required.

The charity also assisted with the repair of a milling machine previously provided to ensure that the villages could continue to mill grain for the provision of food.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We aim to maintain a small reserve to cover on going costs and to allow the initial funding of charitable events and for larger projects which at present includes the cost of shipping school equipment to Tanzania for use in the village school, ongoing maintenance of the village school and further water projects.

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Tumaini Jipya – New Hope

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Tumaini Jipya – New Hope (the Trust) for the year ended 30 November 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. Accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. The accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Fundraising activities during the year were restricted due to the global Covid 19 pandemic which meant it was only possible to hold virtual events for the majority of the year. A number of presentations have been made at local community groups in order to improve the exposure of the charity and its objectives.

During the period the charity has received specific donations for a number of projects including continued support of student's education, installation of toilets at a village school and further work on water supplies within the region by funding the building of a substantial water storage tank.

At the year end restricted funds for specific projects amounted to £1,880 and with some of these funds being used for these purposes after the year end and for future work once additional funds have been raised for the projects required.

The charity has also responded to the needs of those within Tanzania in respect of the Covid 19 pandemic by sending £1,000 to provide cleaning facilities such as buckets, soap and sanitiser.
